JUDGE HANINGTON DIED THIS MORNING AT DORCHESTER

The End Was Unexpected as He Seemed to be Improving—A Prominent Figure in New Brunswick Affairs—Judge McLeod's Tribute.

DORCHESTER, May 6.—The death of Hon. Justice Hanington occurred at the Hanington residence at 7 o'clock this morning. The end was so unexpected that the event is a great shock to the members of the family and to friends generally. It was confidently believed that the rapid and sustained progress was being made towards recovery.

At three o'clock this morning the trained nurse in attendance observed a change in the patient's condition and summoned Dr. James Hanington who has been in constant attendance on his brother to his bedside. He observed no alarming condition and at about 7 o'clock the judge expired without a sigh or struggle.

Justice Hanington had reached the Hanington school course there, studied about 7 o'clock the judge expired without a sigh or struggle.

The late Judge Hanington was born at Shediac in June, 1838, and after a change in the patient's condition and summoned Dr. James Hanington who has been in constant attendance on his brother to his bedside. He observed no alarming condition and at about 7 o'clock the judge expired without a sigh or struggle.

For a great many years Mr. Hanington played a leading part in provincial politics. He ran his first election as a candidate for the assembly from the riding of St. John, and was elected by Mr. Bosford. Upon the latter's elevation to the bench by-election was called and Mr. Hanington was again elected and he was unseated but again became a candidate and was elected. A second petition was filed against him but he was again elected Hanington ran again in the general election of 1874, when the whole Westmorland ticket was defeated on the school question. He was again elected in 1878, and in the same year became a member of the government without portfolio. In 1882 he was again elected as leader of the government in the general election of that year his government was sustained, he himself and his full ticket being elected. From a new government the Westmorland members and they resigned, but in the by-election called in 1883 all were re-elected. When the house met in 1884, Mr. Hanington was again defeated during the debate on the address, several supporters having deserted to join Mr. Blair who thereupon formed a new government. Mr. Hanington more became leader of the opposition, and was shortly afterwards succeeded by Mr. Hanington. In the general election of 1898 Mr. Hanington, and two of his ticket were elected, and in 1899 he was again successful on the coalition ticket. He continued a member of the house until he went on the bench in 1892.

In church matters Judge Hanington has also been active, taking a lead in all affairs relating to the Church of England. For many years he has been a delegate to the Diocesan Synod, has frequently been a delegate to the Anglican Congress, and has taken part in provincial and general synods, and last year was the only lay representative of New Brunswick at the Pan-Anglican Congress. For over fifty years he has been superintendent of the Sunday school at Dorchester.

Judge Hanington was married to Miss Emily M. Wetmore, daughter of the late T. R. Wetmore, of Georgetown. He was the son of the Hon. Daniel Hanington, who for many years represented Westmorland, and at the time of his death was president of the Legislative Council. He was a grandson of Wm. H. Hanington very prominent here in earlier days.

Judge Hanington is survived by six brothers and three sisters, three of the family having passed away. Those now surviving are T. B. Hanington, formerly postmaster of St. John, Canada; E. A. W. Hanington, of New Edinburgh; Dr. Jas. P. of Montreal, Dr. R. C. of Victoria, Chas. P., civil engineer of Ottawa, and A. H. Hanington, K. C., of St. John, and Mrs. E. V. Gray, of St. John. Mrs. Walter Covert, formerly of Grand Manan, and Miss Georgia Hanington of Shediac. The children are Miss Harriet Hanington, of Moncton; Mrs. M. G. Teed, St. John, Henry C., of Victoria, Robert W., of Vancouver, Mrs. H. Gesner Kerr, of New Jersey, C. Lionel, of Dorchester, and Mrs. Geo. R. Payson, of Dorchester.

Announcements concerning the funeral are to the effect that the services will be held on Sunday afternoon, first at the residence and at Holy Trinity Church. His Lordship Bishop Richardson, of Fredericton, will assist the Rev. Mr. Hall.

On the commencement of the circuit court this morning His Honor, Mr. Justice McLeod, made the following remarks in reference to the death of Mr. Justice Hanington:

ATTACKS ON HON. WM. PUGSLEY RESUMED

Mr. Crockett Reviews the Evidence and Charges That Subsidy Paid Exceeded Amount Authorized.

OTTAWA, May 6.—In the Commons this morning Mr. Crockett resumed his speech in reply to Hon. Dr. Pugsley and continuing with the argument which he was pursuing at the time of the adjournment last night the member for York reviewed in detail the evidence taken before the Royal Commission as to the missing account books, receipts, etc., in connection with the receipts and expenditures of the New Brunswick Coal and Railway Company. He declared that no record had been kept by the provincial government of the money disbursed by the company to the amount of $400,000 and he sought to prove from the evidence that the provincial government on the representations of Mr. Pugsley as attorney general, had paid a subsidy of $200,000 per mile on the 15 mile section, though the statute only authorized $22,000 per mile.

WANTS SHERIFF'S JOB AND MAYORALTY TOO

MONCTON, N. B., May 6.—If Solicitor General McLeod is an authority, then Geo. B. Willett can be allowed to act as sheriff for Westmorland County and also continue in the capacity of mayor for Moncton. Since Mr. Willett resolved the appointment of sheriff from the Hazen Government he has been in communication with Mr. McLeod and other legal authorities who say he can occupy both offices. Last evening Mr. Willett telephoned from Dorchester to the city office and, after a long conversation, he was shortly afterwards succeeded by Mr. Hanington. In the general election of 1898 Mr. Hanington, and two of his ticket were elected, and in 1899 he was again successful on the coalition ticket. He continued a member of the house until he went on the bench in 1892.

BULLET WENT FROM HER HEAD TO HER HEELS

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 6.—A bullet which lodged in the head of Miss Elizabeth Farragher, fourteen years ago, has been found in one of the woman's feet. The bullet has never caused her the least pain in its travels. She discovered the projectile near the surface of the skin by accident. An operation was performed and the bullet removed.

the court this morning it is proper that I should make a few remarks with reference to the death of my brother Hanington. Of course you have all heard of it, and it was with feeling of astonishment that I heard of it this morning, because the last I heard he was steadily improving. I can only say that in the death of Judge Hanington this community has lost a good friend, and the bench an able judge. He has been a judge for the past twenty years, during which time he has proved himself able and efficient, and one of the strongest members of the bench. When he was at the bar he was an ornament to the profession. I have practiced with him for years. He was a man of high character, a strong forceful man. Carrying out the various matters he was engaged in, no doubt somewhat hastened his end. The loss of Judge Hanington to the bench and bar of this province and to the public generally is a great misfortune. Now gentlemen all will feel a deep sympathy for his family in their great bereavement."

The judge was visibly affected while speaking.

IN CONCLUSIVE REPLY HE SHATTERED CHARGES AND TURNED THE TABLES

Commission's Report Proved Inaccurate and Unjust—Every Dollar Accounted For

One of the Best Speeches Ever Made in Parliament—Hazen Having Failed to Follow Commission's Recommendation, Pugsley Takes Action in Equity Court to Compel Accounting

OTTAWA, May 5.—Hon. William Pugsley today made a crushing and conclusive reply to the charges made against him by his political enemies in New Brunswick who fondly hoped through the medium of the partisan report of the Central Railway Commission to counteract the first reverse of the attack made in connection with the notorious Mayses affidavit and drive him from public life. His four hours' speech in the commons today was on a par with his recent triumph in reply to this abortive opposition onslaught and his vindication at the conclusion of his speech was ample and complete.

A Discredited Report
He left the Commission's report with scarcely a paragraph upon which any reliance could be placed. His delinquency was more than a vindication. It was the most complete and scathing exposure of a supposed judicial pronouncement that had been made in the name of justice and honor of a Royal Commission been more ruthlessly and effectively assailed.

The attack upon Mr. Pugsley was opened by Mr. Crockett, K. C., members of the opposition to Pugsley, with the aid of Mr. Powell, counsel for the commission, the case against the Minister of Public Works and the Minister of Finance. The latter will have every facility afforded him for substantiating or defending the findings of the commission he surprised all who had anticipated a scolding arraignment supported by indisputable facts, by contenting himself with reading portions of the report and the commission's findings.

All He Could Do
Having taken that course it seems to me that I have done all I possibly can do and what is right and proper I should do. Let me say this, that when I made a speech in the commons I ought to be, particularly in reference to my own affairs, although in reference to the loans that I made to the Government, I have endeavored to point out the errors in the Commission's report. I would ask the liberty to deter while discussion is going on and until the house comes to a conclusion upon it. I would ask the liberty to deter while Pugsley walked from the chamber.)

Crockett Rises at 11
Mr. Crockett, who rose at 11 o'clock to attempt the rehabilitation of the now thoroughly discredited report of the Commission, declared that he was sorry the Minister had withdrawn from the chamber, as he wished to propose to him certain pertinent questions. There was, said Mr. Crockett, not a single finding of the Commission not borne out by the evidence and the charge that there was a total misappropriation of $124,000 still held good.

Mr. Crockett noted that the first alleged error in the Commission's report disclosed by Dr. Pugsley was in reference to the disposal of a note for $10,000 discounted at the bank by Hon. P. B. Thompson. The explanation of the Minister was that this $10,000 had gone to pay the Barnes Construction Company for work in connection with the railway. Mr. Crockett said: "I challenge the minister or the member for Carleton to show that this money is credited to the Railway Company in the books of the Barnes Construction Company," said Mr. Crockett. "Accept the challenge," said Mr. Carvell. He was proceeding to point out the error in the Commission's report when he was interrupted by Mr. Crockett, who said: "I challenge the minister or the member for Carleton to show that this money is credited to the Railway Company in the books of the Barnes Construction Company," said Mr. Crockett.
