Music and Drama

The County Sheriff.
 That strong significant drama, "The County Sheriff," by Lem B. Parker, is an attractive play in four acts, that not only furnishes the entertainment incident to an interesting story well told, but is diffusive of moral benefits in the community. It is not a play that preaches, but it is one that tends to confirm to the mind of every spectator, the conviction that true success consists of doing right. It will be seen at the Grand Friday, March 21, Matinee and night.

The management of the Grand Opera House take great pleasure in announcing that on Saturday March 22 they will offer Mort H. Singer's best and most musical comedy "The Fleeter Breakers." This will be the second season of this successful musical play and also will be the second year for the appearance of Mr. George Damarel as a star. Mr. Damarel with his pleasing personality, strong singing and graceful dancing has become a favorite with the theatre-goers all over the country. "The Merry Widow" There are any number of songs in the piece, and "Your Eyes, Your Smile and Your Act" is whistled all over the country. Special attention has been paid to the chorus and a large and pretty bevy of girls that all of the Singer shows are noted for, are carried. A special matinee will be presented at 2.30.
