BRANTFORD

the Duke of Connaught, who was the most kind and solicitous.

Miss Nellie VanNorman gave a delightful reception from 4 to 7 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Brantford Golf and Country Club House. Despite the unsettled weather there was a large attendance of men and women. The pretty quarters were a wealth of flowers and a thoroughly enjoyable time was spent by all. The hostess presented a striking figure attired in a handsome gown of green tulle. Mrs. Montzamberti and Mrs. A. J. Wilkes presided at the coffee and tea urns, and others assisting in looking after the guests were Mrs. B. Forsayeth, Mrs. J. P. Browning, Mrs. F. D. Revell, Mrs. W. F. Paterson, Mrs. A. T. Dimeson, Miss Edith Browning and her guest, Harwen's orchestra supplied the musical entertainment.

Mrs. William Gourlay Webster, formerly Miss Ada Burt, of Brantford, received for the first time since her marriage Thursday afternoon at her pretty new home on Markland street. Her mother, Mrs. Burt, received with her, wearing a brown satin gown with corsage bouquet of lilies of the valley. Mrs. Webster looked very pretty in her beautiful wedding dress, of white chamoise satin with court train and handsome trimming, corsage bouquet of Richmond roses. The polished tea table in the dining room with tall vases of roses and lilies of the valley was presided over by Mrs. Morton Patterson, Brantford, assisted by Mrs. Glenmore Walker, Mrs. Herbert Porter, Toronto, Miss Reba Krizan and Miss Muriel Laing. Gait, Mrs. Webster will receive on Mondays during the season.—Hamilton Herald.

London Globe Changes Hands.
LONDON, Oct. 13.—The Globe, which claims to be London's oldest evening newspaper, has again changed hands. It has been acquired by a syndicate formed by E. D. Blumenfeld, formerly of New York, later London correspondent of The New York Herald, and now managing editor of the London Daily Express.

AMERICAN BUYERS.
TORONTO, Ont., Oct. 13.—Receipts this morning were remarkably heavy. Over 8,000 cattle were received, ranging from the best grades obtainable to many of the poorest seen for a long while. Terrible.
Think of a pickle famine! What will Myrtle, the beautiful high school girl do for her lunch?
A VEGETABLE CONSTIPATION CURE.
Because they contain mercury and mineral salts, many pills are harsh. The easiest and safest laxative is Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. They clean the stomach, intestines and bowels—drive out waste matter, tone the kidneys and forever cure constipation. As a general tonic and system cleanser nothing is so mild and efficient as Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Mandrake and Butternut. Sold everywhere in 25c boxes.

The Idea of Suggestion.
Richard Mansfield once said that when he was a lad in London he often nearly starved. There was a certain bakeshop where he would go and feast upon the odors coming from the door. That boyhood notion gave him the idea of putting those lines in his play, "Beau Brummell," about "dining on the names of things"—a suggestion he used with powerful dramatic effect.

Veterians of Church Bells.
The church bell has its votaries. Tennyson sang of "the mellow language of the evening bells." And do you remember that experience of "Henry Ryecroft"? "I once passed a night in a little market town where I had arrived tired and went to bed early, I slept forthwith, but was presently awakened by I knew not what in the darkness there sounded a sort of music, and, as my brain cleared, I was aware of the soft chiming of church bells. Why, what hour could it be? I started upright and looked at my watch. Midnight. Then a glow came over me. 'We have heard the chime at midnight, Master Shallow! Nevel! I'll then had I heard them. And the town in which I slept was Evesham, but a few miles from Stratford-upon-Avon. What if those midnight bells had been to me but as any other and I had reviled them for breaking my sleep?'—London Chronicle.

Some of a Sultan.
The sultan of Turkey once played a joke at the expense of some medical experts at Constantinople. When the plague broke out in his capital the sultan asked if anything was known as to the cause. On being informed that it was to be found in the state of the drinking water, he called at once for six empty bottles, which he had filled in his presence, all from the same one of the palace wells, placed his own seal upon them, and then, without divulging their genuineness of origin, handed all six to a prominent analyst. To his amazement the report sent in was that four of the samples contained plague microbes. The fifth was merely purged water, and the sixth was quite pure. Abdul Hamid calmly shrugged his shoulders and kept his thoughts to himself.

Would Fill the Bill.
Some who have attended councils and associations can appreciate this story of the late Rev. Dr. Norman Macleod of Edinburgh. Going into a room in which was a cage containing a large owl, he surveyed it for a long time. The owl sat unmoved, placid and erect. His mien was dignified, his horns impressive. His eyes cold and observant, his countenance sagacious and critical. At length Norman broke silence, "Man, ye wad un! a splendid moderaw!"—Christian Register.

Sentimentalism.
"Here's a very good definition of a sentimentalist."
"Let's hear it."
"A sentimentalist is a person who weeps over a fallen column, but is too lazy to help set it up again."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Gifted.
"I am convinced," said Mrs. Meekton, "that women are especially qualified for the duties of statesmanship."
"Why?"
"Because most of the women I have known were natural born lecturers."—Washington Star.
