THE MANLY ART.

"Padre" Was Referee at the Championship Boxing Contests.

If anybody has any idea that boxing will be tabooed by the muscular Christianity which has grown up with this war, he should have been at Brussels, Belgium, Saturday, March 22 at the Canadian Corps' championships and watched a clergyman referee the boxing contests. Yes, sir! the referee for the championship bouts was a beloved "padre," a military Cross man and a major to boot —Rev. Major H. Beauchamp, M.C.
That combined with the fact that a couple of battle front padres in the American army challenged each other to a game of padded clouts and that British, Canadian, Australian, New Zealand and American chaplains have openly encouraged the boys in every form of healthy sport, including boxing. The officer in charge of the boxing was a Y.M.C.A. boy, Lieut. Tommy Armour, of Toronto Central Y.M.C.A. There were plenty of men well-known in sport around Ontario on the list of officers. Major Jack Maynard, the Varsity rugby star, was referee of the rugby contests, and Capt. Jimmie Clark, M.C., of Toronto Central Y.M.C.A.; Capt. Billy Wood, of Brantford, the first Canadian Marathon-er to finish in the 1908 Olympic Marathon—the race in which Tom Long-boat quit — were on the Grounds Committee. Lieut. Ernie H. Knott, who used to manage the Young Toronto Lacrosse Club, was a scorer.
Lieut.-Col. Jack Ralston, D.S.O., of Montreal, a well-known M.A.A.A. man, and Major F. O. Tidy, of Toronto, a judge of field events. The team events were competed at the Leopold Club, Avenue du Tennis, Uccle; the indoor events at the Palais des Sports, Avenue Louis Bertrand, Schaerbeek; and the swimming at the Bains St. Saviour Rue Montagne, Aux-Herbes-Potagers.

Virtue's Reward.

Two Hoosier teachers were traveling through Canada the other day.
They had to take a very early train, and as a result intended to eat breakfast in the dining car. But there was no dining car on the train. Hungrily they faced the prospect of a day of fasting, for they would not arrive at their destination until late afternoon.
"We have just two cakes of chocolate," said one, taking store of their possessions. "Will you eat yours now or wait a while?"

The second ate her cake then, trusting to luck to find a station lunchroom. But the first waited until noon and until a mother and two small children had settled themselves in the seat opposite the teachers.

Finally she took the cake of chocolate, eyed it in happy anticipation and then unwrapped it. But lo, the two youngsters were against her knee, and they, too, were looking at it with happy anticipation. Of course, it was divided between them.

Half an hour later the mother opened her grip and out came the family lunch of fried chicken, sandwiches, etc. But not one bite did the generous teacher get. "What was that about a cup of cold water?" she asked the other teacher hintingly.

The woman with the full basket stared at her coldly. Then she took a drinking cup from her grip and extended it. "You may have it," she offered, "but there's paper cups at the can."

THE THIRD MACKENZIE.

Temporary Leader of Liberal Party Has Never Been Defeated.

Daniel D. Mackenzie, the new temporary leader of the Liberal party at Ottawa, is described by Parliamentary observers as a "two-listed, fighting man," a dour and capable Scot.

One may imagine the trusty and faithful type of the man from the fact that in twenty-five years of public life he has never been defeated in any election.

He is the third Mackenzie in the line of Liberal leadership in Canada, and it is just a century since the first, William Lyon Mackenzie, landed in Canada. That first Mackenzie was not a Liberal leader in the party meaning of the word, but stood for liberty and the free institutions in Canada. The second Mackenzie was Alexander, who was Liberal Premier of Canada for five years shortly after Confederation.

This latest Mackenzie has had a distinguished public career. He is now sixty years of age, having been born at Lake Ainslie, Cape Breton, in 1859. He entered the profession of law and served as mayor of North Sydney and Commissioner of Schools for Cape Breton County for five consecutive years. In 1900 he was elected to the Nova Scotia Legislature and to the House of Commons in 1904, in which he has remained ever since.
From 1906 to 1908 he was judge of the County Court District No. 7 of Nova Scotia. As his name would indicate, he is a Presbyterian.

While a very aggressive fighter, Mr. Mackenzie has till the present, remained out of the limelight. In the Parliamentary debates in the first year of the war, when the Government was attacked on several points, Mr. Mackenzie took a prominent part. Sir Wilfrid Laurier thought so highly of Mr. Mackenzie that he chose him to sit at his deskmate in the Commons during the last session of Parliament.
