Gentlemen,—I was badly
kicked by my horse last May,
and after using several preparations on my leg nothing would do. My leg was black as jet. I was laid up in bed for a fortnight and could not walk. After using three bottles of your MINARD'S LINIMENT I was perfectly cured, so that I could start on the road.

British Lost 250,000 In Past Three Months

London, Sept. 10—From June 1, this year, to date the British army and navy have lost more than 250,000 men. For June the casualties numbered approximately 30,000. During August 36,150 officers and men were reported killed or missing, and 96,838 more wounded.
Although these lists are official, it is impossible to draw deductions from them, as they inductions from them, as they in-clude all fronts and cover no special period of fighting. How-ever, they serve to show what the war is costing Britain is man power. It is believed that the German and Austrian losses for the same period are much greater.

Subscribers who are paid up for 1916 need give no heed to our call to subscribers in arrears. Those paying in advance are helping us to keep our paper up to the present standard in size and quality. Those in arrears are dragging us down and preventing us in paying our legitimate bills. The latter must now pay what is due or pay an increased price and the costs of collecting.

Duke Speaking to Princess Parcica.

Onlike the five years of his Governor-General hip, nothing has given His Royal Highness the Dake of Comanghi, more pleasure than the ceremony which made him Chief of the Stony Indians. This ceremony took place at Banff, where the Duke and Duchess, together with Princess Patricia, spent a delightful holiday has Summer.

The Stony Indians, who were once a distinctly warlike tribe, and some of whose exploits form the background to Raiph Connor? "Sun Dance Patrol," are now good citizens and hold an Annual Sports Day at the great tourist resort in July. The picturesque arb of a Stony Indian Chief admirably suits the fine figure and strong profile of the Duke.

Princess Patricia found particular pleasure this Summer in riding her Mounted Police pony "Dandy" along the mountain trails which radiate from Banff through the passes and over the precipitons sides of the surrounding mountains. The Duke himself spent much of his time in rishing for mountain cut-threat and devil trout, but the largest fish of the season was caught by Miss Yorke, lady in waiting to the Duchess of Connaught, who landed a monster of no less than nine pounds. The sulphur water swimming pool attached to the C.F.R. hotel was a source of great delight to the Royal party, and many amusing snapshots not for publication, are being taken back to England. The many visits of the Consaughts to Banff have resulted in this becoming the chief social center of the West during the summer months. The Americans who have the money to travel have deserted their own National Parks so but they could be rearer to a real Duke.
