On Sunday evening last, Rev. Stearne Tighe, of Lansdowne Front, preached in Christ Church on "The Wines of the Bible." There was a large attendance, and the reverend gentleman's discourse received the undivided attention of sell. Mr. Tighe is opposed to the present agitation in favour of the Scott Act, and, in brief, to any law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor.

What compensation could be given to wives and mothers for husbands and sons ruined by drink? Nothing, on onthing, can compensate for the evils already done.

X A painfully sudden death occurred here last Tuesday afternoon. Arrand Mrs. Wright Sheldon left their home in Plum Hollow in the enjoyment of their usual health, intending to do some shopping in Atlanta to do some shopping in Athens About dusk Mrs. Sheldon came out o Mr. Thompson's store and got into the sleigh. As soon as she reached the seat she was observed to fall over in a faint. The sufferer was immediately taken to the residence of her father, Mr. Jas. Kilborn, and a medical man sent for; but she died in a few min-utes after the attack. The very sad and sudden event cast a gloom over the deceased's large circle of acquain tances in Plum Hollow and Athens.
