GIRLS IN CIVIL SERVICE. Ottawa Liberal Executive Against Their

Appointment. Ottawa, March 12.—To encourage the employment of young men in the Government service, the Executive Committee of the Ottawa Reform Association has recommended to the Ottawa representatives in Parliament that, so far as possible, male applicants be given the preference when appointments are to be made. Only in exceptional cases well girls be assisted to obtain positions.

The Mayor's denouncement of civic imployees, who, he says, have been but-ing into business that concerns the al-ermen only, has caused consternation ting into business that concerns the aldermen only, has caused consternation in the City Hall. It has been suggested that Secretary James, of the Fire and Water Committee, be given quarters in City Messenger Smith's office. The latter protests vigorously against any such move.

It was expected that the city would have received the Street Railway Company's answers to its proposition today, but Colonel Gibson said this morning that it would be impossible to give a definite reply before next week, as General Manager Hawkins is in New York. The city is not pleased with the tardi-

The city is not pleased with the tardiness of the Hydro-Electric Commission in sending the information wanted about the power question. It was intimated long ago that as soon as application was made for power the form of contract would be sent on. Hamilton made application everal weeks ago, but the contract has not arrived yet. Hon. Adam Beck sent the city a letter some weeks ago, promising to come to Hamilton within a few days with one of the engineers and go into the matter thoroughly. Mr. Beck has not arrived yet. Yesterday Secretary Brennan, of the Board of Works, wrote him, asking that the contract and other information asked for be sent on at once.

IS HE A BIGAMIST? Thorold Man In Jail Charged With

Having Two Wives. St. Catharines, Ont., March 14.-(Special)—Thorold has another sensation. This time it is a case of bigamy, and the offender, at the instance of wife No. 1. is now lying in Welland Jail, through is now lying in Welland Jail, through the prompt action of Chief Shee, of Thorold. The man's name is James Carpenter, and he has been a resident of Thorold for about two weeks, during which time he has been employed as a teamster by H. Rink. It seems, according to the story which wife No. 1 is said to have told to the authorities, Carpenter married wife No. I in Manitoba nine years ago. Last fall she went to visit relatives in the old country, suiling from New York on Dec. 10th. Carpenter came to Welland shortly afterwards, and, on January 10th, met his affinity and on February 10th they were married. He is said to have written to wife No. 1 that he would have no more to do with her, and at her instance the true condition of things was tance the true condition of things was evealed to the authorities.

ACACIA REUNION.

Masonic Past Masters Filled the Chairs Last Night,

The annual re-union of the Past Mas ters of Acacia Lodge, A. F. & A. M. was held last night in the Masonic Hall. The chairs were occupied by the Past Mas-The resolution passed by the Liberals states that positions for girls should be confined to such work as stenography and type-writing. There is an understanding that very deserving cases, such as poor women or girls helping to support a home, will be given special consideration, but otherwise girls will not receive much encouragement from the local Liberal Executive.
