THE SAINT JOHN MONITCR, OCTOBER 29, 1904.

THE PRELATES DO WELL. The Archbishop of Boston, six of the province and over a priests assembled at St. bishops of the province and o hundred John's Seminary on Tuesday to pay honor to the memory of the late Father Hogan. A Celtic cross, the tribute of the Alumni, was unveiled. The prelates and other clergy of New England do well to honor the memory John Hogan. No man of his generation did more to inspire the Levites of this province with sentiments vites of this province with sentiments in keeping with their high vocation. His name is reverenced in two capitals. His learning, his broad and cultured mind, were not perhaps sufficiently appreciated by the undergraduates. He did nothing calculated to discover his brilliant gifts and varied acquirements, but those who were permitted to draw near and hold familiar intercourse near and hold taminar intercourse with him, soon learned to appreciate his qualities of mind and heart. His memory should be cherished at St. John's Seminary where so many of his best years were spent. Wise men will revere him for the services which he rendered to the cruse of religion and they will show their wisdom no more they will show their wisdom no more decisively than in striving to reduce to practice the councils which he has transmitted to them in his excellent writings.—Catholic Transcript, Hart-ford Unit tath ford, Oct. 13th.

WHERE THEY MISSED IT. It was their first baby The mother was in a perfect rap

It was an ugly baby, but she did not know it.

Happy young mother ! All of them are like her.

But the father had dark misgivings His salary was only $12.50 a week, and babies are expensive luxuries.

Her father was rich, but he had frowned upon their union and had heterodox and heretical notions as to supporting a son-in-law besides. Cruel old man !

One day when the baby was about a month old the father came home from his office in the city and found his wife radiant.

She was not happy when the baby was out of her sight

"What is it, Jennie ?" asked her husband, for he was yet uncertain as to the blessings conferred by the baby.

He was also sleepy.

THE AUTHOR OF "DADDY DAN." The Very Rev. P. A. Sheehan, D. D., who has now the additional dignity of Canon, has written a new story of Irish life, "Glenanaan," which will begin in the November number of the Dolphin. It is a story of comparatively recent history, in which Daniel O'Connell figures. There is a priest in it, too, who is likely to dispute a place in the affections of Dr. Sheeban's many, readers with "Father Dan" and "Luke Delmege." . The same author has another new story on the way, "The Spoiled Priest,"-a word in Ireland for the candidate who has turned back.

TEMPERANCE ITEM.

Among the many Catholic organ izations in Boston working for the betterment of people of our faith, not the least noticeable is the Hiberian Total Abstinence Association. This society is composed of men and women who must be members, respect ively, of the A. O. H. and of the ladies' Auxiliary to the A. O. H. The object of the society is to induce divisions of the A. O. H. to do away with the use of intoxicating liquor at all meetings, banquets, or functions of any kind held under A. O. H. The membership of the auspices. society is widespread, and there are 300 names on the roll, among the atest to Daly, join being Judge Mayor of Cambridge, who addressed the society recently on the life of Robert Emmet, interweaving many a solid lesson of the value of temperance and total abstinence to the Irish race.

A Glorious Age in which We Live.

We ought more frequently to cast our thoughts upon the marvellous achievements of the age in which we live. In the department of medicine alone there has been an advance all along the line, securing to mankind ever increasing exemption from pain and suffering.
