VARIETIES.

Somebody, on one occasion, annoyed at being advised by one to do this, and by another to do that, burst out with—

"There are societies every where for the suppression of all sorts of vice under the sun, except one; and I wish with all my heart there was one to suppress that!"

Being asked what that vice was, he answered:

"Ad-vice; a vice which has not unfrequently done as much harm as any other in the world."

This may have proved true of many kinds of advice; but the following "piece of advice" must recommend itself to the good sense of every reader:

"If any thing in the world will make a man feel badly, even more so than pinching his finger in the crack of a door, it is unquestionably a quarrel. No man ever failed to think less of himself after it than he did before. It degrades him in the eyes of others; and what is worse, it blunts his sensibility on the one hand, and increases the power and passion of irritability on the other. The truth is, the more quietly and peaceably we all get on the better—the better for us, the better for our neighbors. In nine cases out of ten the wisest course is, if a man cheats you, to quit dealing with him; if he is abusive, quit his company; if he slanders you, take care so to live that nobody will believe him. No matter who he is, or how he insults you, the wisest way is just to let him alone; for there is nothing better, nothing that will sooner "heap coals of fire" upon your enemy's head, than this cool, calm, and quiet way of dealing with the wrongs one meets with in this world."

Candles.—To twelve pounds of lard use of alum and saltpetre each one pound; dissolve the alum and saltpetre in a small quantity of water; then pour into the melted lard, and boil the whole until the water evaporates. The mixture requires constant stirring to prevent settling in the bottom of the vessel. Candles made of this composition are equal to the best tallow, and last some time longer.

A Hint to Young Ladies,—An intelligent gentlemen of fortune visited a country village in Maine, not very far from Bangor, and was hospitably entertained and lodged by a gentleman having three daughters—two of whom in rich dresses entertained the distinguished stranger in the parlour, while one kept herself in the kitchen, assisting her mother in preparing the food and setting the table for tea; and after the supper, in doing the work till it was fully completed; when she also joined her sisters in the parlour for the remainder of the evening. The next morning the same daughter was again early in the kitchen, while the other two were in the parlour. The gentleman, like Franklin, possessed a discriminating mind—was a close observer of the habits of the young ladies—watched an opportunity and whispered something in the ear of the industrious one, and then left for a time, but revisited the same family, and in about one year the young lady of the kitchen was conveyed to Boston, the wife of the same gentleman visitor, where she now presides at an elegant mansion. The gentleman whose fortune she shares she won by a judicious deportment and well directed industry. So much for an industrious young lady.

"Will you give us a 'apeth o' what you don't sell?" asked a young ragamuffin, on entering a chandler's shop. "Oh, willingly!" retorted the shopkeeper, on laying a stick rather roughly about the shoulders of the querist. "We always give that gratis!"

"Oh, my friend!" said a doctor to an Irish patient; "be composed? We must all die once!" "An' it's that what vexes me!" replied Pat. "If I could die half a dozen times, I'd not care a ha'penny about this time!"

A libeller of the fair sex says the women are all alike. "When they are maids, they're mild as milk; once make them wives, and they lean their backs against their marriage certificate and defy you."

An American paper says:—"A young lady in Albany was lately married to Mr. William Tongue. Isn't she Tongue-tied? We hope she will be happy and hold her tongue many a long year.

"Mother, I shouldn't be surprised if our Susan got choked some day." "Why, my son?" "Because her beau twisted his arms around her neck the other night, and if she had not kissed him to let her go, he would have strangled her."

Height of Gallantry.—At the late 'fair for the blind,' in Boston, a sailor was strolling past a table kept by a most lovely woman. Jock stopped, looked for a moment in breathless admiration, then took a ten-dollar note from his pocket, laid it on the table, and was passing on, "My good friend" said the lady, "won't you take something for your money?" "I thank you madam," replied the tar, with another shy look; "I've had more than my money's worth already."

An attorney about to finish a bill of costs was requested by a client, a baker, to make it as light as he could.—"Ah!" replied the attorney, "that's what you may say to your foreman, but it's not the way I make my bread."

We notice in a contemporary's columns the advertisement of a lady for a husband—"None need apply under six feet." The lady goes in ferociously for Hy-men.

Books are the depositories of those minds which were busy in their generations, in striving for the applause of their own age and the esteem of posterity.

To the Electors of Charlottetown and Royalty.

Gentlemen,—

I SOLICIT the honor of representing you in the new House of Assembly about to be chosen.

Should you again honor me with that office—one which different circumstances may render of more importance to you than at any former period of the many times I have been entrusted with it—I shall endeavour to discharge its duties with that zeal, intrepidity and self-disinterestedness which should ever distinguish a Representative of the people.

I am, Gentlemen, your humble servant,

EDWARD PALMER.

Charlottetown, June 13th, 1853. 1&A

To the Electors of the First District of Queen's County.

Gentlemen;

SINCE accepting your invitation to come forward as a Candidate for your suffrages, I have visited a considerable part of the District, and I feel thankful for the kind manner in which I have been received, and for the very general promises of support tendered me. At the time I commenced my canvass, I knew not what New London intended doing, whether they would nominate a Candidate for that end of the District or not, so that I had to canvass for myself alone. They have now a man in the field—Mr. John McLeod—the New London people having engaged to support me, with the understanding that my friends would support Mr. McLeod. I am aware that a few of my friends have promised to vote for Mr. Coles, as well as myself; to those I would say keep your promises, and vote as you have engaged; but believing, as I do, that a large number of my supporters at this end of the District have not as yet promised their second vote, but have expressed their determination not to support Mr. Coles, I now solicit them to give it to the New London Candidate, and on no account to give me a plumper, but divide with Mr. McLeod. Our prospects are good; and as no one blames Mr. Coles for trying to get Mr. Laird supported, let no one blame me for doing what I can for Mr. McLeod. It is nothing but right that the other end of the District should have its Representative. We pledge ourselves to take no public Office, and to keep the Assembly as free from Office-holders as possible, and so purify Responsible Government. If eight or ten members of the Assembly get offices, it will be as great a compact as that of which we have lately got clear of. Let us stand by each other, and the victory is ours.

Your Obedt. Servt.

GEORGE BEER, jur.

Charlottetown, June 25, 1853.

To the Electors of the Second Electoral District of Prince County.

Gentlemen;

I AM induced, from the repeated solicitations of many of the most respectable influential Electors amongst you, to offer myself as a Candidate for your Suffrages at the approaching Election.

My object in thus making my intentions public through this medium is, because I have hitherto declined, when requested by many of you, to offer myself.

I may be permitted to say, that I believe I am individually acquainted with you all, and am satisfied that you are aware that it is not from any selfish or pecuniary motive that induces me to come forward.

As a native of the Colony, and one whose interests are inseparably connected with your own, it would be my highest aim to advance its best interest and prosperity. And, be assured Gentlemen, should you honor me with your confidence, nothing I trust on my part shall be wanting to advance the true interest of the Colony, and this my native district particularly.

I am, Gentlemen, truly yours,

JAMES CAMPBELL.

Saint Eleanors, May 23, 1853.

To the Electors of Georgetown and Royalty,

Gentlemen,—

ENCOURAGED by the cordial promise of support which I have received from many of you, I now offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the approaching General Election.

Although I hold the office of Attorney General, I am unable to perceive why that should render me incompetent to represent you fearlessly and independently; on the contrary, if returned by you, it is my determination to do so on all occasions; and whilst I shall be prepared to advocate all sound liberal measures, calculated to benefit the country generally, I shall feel it to be an especial duty to use any legitimate influence which my position may afford me, to advance the local interests of Georgetown and Royalty.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

JOSEPH HENSLEY.

June 16th, 1853.

To the Electors of Georgetown and Royalty.

Gentlemen;

I AM induced to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the forthcoming General Election, in consequence of the many generous offers of support which I received from my friends during my recent visit amongst you. I am no Office-holder, and therefore I can represent you fearlessly and independently, without being shackled in my votes by the undue influence of the Government. The true interests of this my native country will never be studied or cared for, so long as the popular branch of the Legislature is compose of greedy Officials, who are bound hand and foot to support the Government, upon every measure, without consulting the views of their Constituents upon the subject. Under such a despotic system, a Member of the House of Assembly is not the People's servant but the Government's willing slave. Should I obtain, for the third time, the distinguished honor of being returned as one of your Representatives to the Colonial Parliament, rest assured I will be second to none in attempting to carry out all measures that may have the slightest tendency to advance the prosperity and local improvement of Georgetown and Royalty.

I remain, Gentlemen,

Your obedient servant,

June 10, 1853. T. HEATH HAVILAND.

To the Electors of the Second District of Queen's County.

Gentlemen,

AT a late hour I am induced to come forward to solicit the honor of representing you in the new House of Assembly. Were I to consult my own personal feelings and wishes, I would forbear to do so, but the pressing solicitations which I have received from my old friends and supporters from every quarter of the District, prompt me to obey the call of duty.

I come before you resting upon my own individual character as a free man unconnected with all party influences, and desirous of promoting the interests of my native country. I feel assured that the system of Government, as at present in force in this Colony, has not met your expectations, and am clearly of opinion that to prevent undue influence, and to render it more acceptable to the public at large, the principle established in Canada, by which all officers connected with the Receipt and Collection of the Public Moneys are excluded from the Legislature, should be extended to this Island. I am also in favour of Reciprocal Free Trade with the United States, as I feel persuaded, that no measure is so well calculated to benefit our Farmers and open up the resources of the country. These are only a few of the objects which should receive the earnest attention of the new House; and upon the character of that House, in my opinion, will depend the future prosperity of the country, or otherwise.

If you should deem me worthy of your choice as a Representative, I trust my experience in a former House of Assembly will enable me the more efficiently to discharge my duty towards you. I remain, Gentlemen, Yours, very faithfully,

JOHN LONGWORTH.

Charlottetown, June 20, 1853.

To the Electors of the Second District of Queen's County.

Gentlemen,

AT the request of many of yourselves, whose opinions and good wishes I highly value, I am induced to offer myself as a Candidate for your suffrages at the ensuing general Election.

Although born and bred amongst you, yet having hitherto moved only in private life, I feel it right to state freely my opinion on the present form of our Constitution. I am desirous to extend to the furthest every privilege which ought to be enjoyed by a British subject, and to protect and reward the honest industry of the people, by the extension and establishment of Free Trade with the United States, as well as with the surrounding Colonies. And while I am most anxious to support a Liberal system of Responsible Government, I am persuaded that, in carrying out the same, in its purity, most, if not all, those intrusted with the receipt or expenditure of the Public Revenue, ought to be excluded from the Legislature. These being the views which I have imbibed while living by my industry on my farm, I have only to add that, if honored by your support, so as to be returned one of your Representatives, I shall not fail to advocate such principles, for the advancement of your interests, to the best of my humble ability.

I have the honor to be, gentlemen,

Your most obedt. servant,

ALEXANDER M'DONALD.

Glenroy, June 17th, 1853.

To the Electors of Charlottetown and Royalty.

AS A GENERAL ELECTION for Members to serve in Colonial Parliament will shortly take place, I am again induced to offer myself as a Candidate for the Representation of this my native Town. I have to rest my claims for a renewal of your suffrages on a review of my conduct in the House of Assembly, as your Representative, for the past fourteen years; and if it has, proved to be such as to warrant a continuance of your confidence, you may rest assured that I shall pursue the same line of Policy and Principles as heretofore.

This, I think I may be permitted to say, with your accordance, that during the period I have had the honor of representing you in the Assembly, I never gave my support to visionary measures for the purpose of obtaining ephemeral or undue popularity, nor voted against the interests of my Constituents for the consideration of Office or Emolument.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

With much respect,

Your Obliged and Obdt. Servt.,

FRANCIS LONGWORTH.

Charlottetown, June 10, 1853.

To the Electors of the First Electoral District of Queen's County.

HAVING been nominated, in my absence from the Island, at a numerous meeting of the respectable Constituency at the west end of the District, and strongly urged on my arrival at home, to allow myself to be put in nomination as a Candidate to represent them in General Assembly, I have, on mature consideration, deemed it my duty to respond to their call; and having, from a very extensive canvass, the most encouraging prospects of success, I beg leave most respectfully to solicit your suffrages—If returned, my energies will be devoted to the promotion of the best interests, whether of a moral or pecuniary nature, of the inhabitants of this my native Isle. The local requirements of the First Electoral District of Queen's County will at all times, have my best attention by aiding to exclude from the Assembly, all Officers who are appointed for receiving or collecting the Public Revenue.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

Your Obedt. Servt.

JOHN McLEOD.

New London, June 27th, 1853. 1si

To the Free and Independent Electors of Charlottetown and Royalty.

Gentlemen—

HAVING been called upon at a very large Meeting of Electors at the Old Court House on Friday evening last, and there presented with a numerously signed Requisition, soliciting me to come forward as a Candidate to represent them in the General Assembly of this Island, I now come before you as such, at the same time thanking them for the honour thus conferred.

My coming before you at so late an hour has been caused by the resignation of Mr. Pound, whose address to the Electors appeared a short time since, and to whom I intended to give my support, but he having now declined the contest, I am induced to fill up the vacancy thus occurred, and will endeavour to carry out those principles which his Card enunciated.

For nearly 36 years I have been a resident of Charlottetown, and I flatter myself that I know its wants and its interests; and you will believe me when I say, that in common with yourselves I feel a deep interest in its welfare, and as I am known to most of you, I am sure you will rely on me that I will be watchful over it.

Should you please me in the House of Assembly as your Representative, you may feel confident that I shall guard your rights. I am in favour of Responsible Government, and will support it as the established Constitution of the country.

My own interests are so identified with those of the Mechanical and Labouring Classes (being a Mechanic myself,) that I firmly rely on their countenance and support.

Yours faithfully,

JOHN TRENAMAN.

Never Failing Remedy!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

A CRIPPLE SETS ASIDE HIS CRUTCHES AFTER TEN YEARS SUFFERING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pills which has astonished every person acquainted with the sufferer. About 10 years ago, Mr. W. Cummins, of Saltney Street, in this town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he received very serious injuries; he had the best medical advice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malignant running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely crippled him, that he could not move without crutches for nearly 10 years; recently he began to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor. (Signed) J. THOMPSON.

A MOST EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE, WHEN ALL MEDICAL AID HAD FAILED.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. Hird, Draper, of Keady, near Gainsbro', dated March 1st, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Sir—Some time since, one of my children was afflicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Surgeons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Ointment and Pills, and without exaggeration, the effect was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health.

I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer.

(Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

ANOTHER SURPRISING CURE OF ULCERATED BAD LEGS, DEBILITY, AND GENERAL ILL HEALTH.

Copy of a Letter, from Mr. J. M. Clennell, of Newcastle-on-Tyne, dated September 20th, 1852.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—I am authorised by Mrs. Gibson, of 31, Bailey Street, in this town, to inform you, that for a considerable period she had been a sufferer from debility, and general ill health, accompanied by a disordered stomach, and great derangement of the system. In addition to this, she was terribly afflicted with ulcerated wounds, or running sores, in both her legs, so that she was totally incapable of doing her usual work. In this distressing condition she adopted the use of your Pills and Ointment, and she states that in a wonderful short time, they effected a perfect cure of her legs, and restored her constitution to health and strength; and that she is now enabled to walk about with ease and comfort. Several other persons in this neighbourhood have also received extraordinary benefit from the use of your invaluable medicines.

I remain dear Sir, yours faithfully,

(Signed) JOHN MORTON CLENNELL.

CERTAIN REMEDY FOR SCORBUTIC HUMOURS—AND AN ASTONISHING CURE OF AN OLD LADY SEVENTY YEARS OF AGE OF A BAD LEG

Copy of a Letter from Messrs. Walker and Co., Chemists, Bath.

To Professor Holloway,

Dear Sir—Among the numerous cures effected by the use of your valuable medicines in this neighbourhood, we may mention that of an old lady living in the Village of Preston, about five miles from this City. She had ulcerated wounds in her leg for many years, and latterly they increased to such an alarming extent as to defy all the usual remedies; her health rapidly giving way under the suffering she endured. In this distressing condition she had recourse to your Ointment and Pills, and by the assistance of her friends, was enabled to persevere in their use, until she received a perfect cure. We have ourselves been greatly astonished at the effect upon so old a person, she being above 70 years of age. We shall be happy to satisfy any enquiries as to the authenticity of this really wonderful case, either personally or by letter.

A private in the Bath Police Force, also, has been perfectly cured of an old scorbutic affection in the face, after all other means had failed. He states that it is entirely by the use of your Ointment, and speaks loudly in its praise. We remain, Dear Sir,

Your's faithfully,

(Signed) WALKER & Co.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:—

Bad Legs	Chigo-foot	Piles
Bad Breasts	Chilblains	Gout
Burns	Chapped hands	Glandular swellings
Bunions	Corns (Soft)	Lumbago
Bite of Mosquitoes and Sand Flies	Cancers	Rheumatism
Coco-bay	Contracted and Stiff Joints	Ulcers
Sore-throats	Elephantiasis	Bore Nipples
Sore-heads	Skin-diseases	Scurvy
Wounds	Tumours
