The Epiphany to-day.
Who were the Troubadours, anyway? Don't forget to date your letters "Jan. 1882."

The ice formed on the harbor on New Year's Day.
The Misses Atkins have returned from Detroit.

The Old Council holds its last meeting on Friday night.

Have you broken through any of your good resolutions yet?

Miss Ellen Ralph passed her Model examination creditably.

The town band did considerable ser- vicing on Monday last.

Mr. G. N. McDonald is visiting clamsmen in and about Lucknow.

Miss Clara Platt left last week to spend the winter months in London.

The curlers are at it hard. The first ice of the year was on Monday.

Will some one point out the man who didn't "resolve" on New Year's?

The Misses Kate and Edith Tye, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. Cattle.

Mrs. Wilson, mother of Mr. James Wilson, druggist, is seriously ill.

Mr. H. C. Craswell left on Tuesday to fill his new position in Pickering College.

The postmaster is thankful that the holiday card season is a thing of the past.

Mrs. Jordan, of Brantford, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Crawford, at the Albion.

Why does a tavern keeper resemble a hangman—Because they both live in the "drap."

Mr. Jack Harrison, and Mr. Jack Frost, have made their appearance this season together.

The next sitting of the Division Court in Goderich, will be held on Wednesday, February 1st, 1882.

THE SIGNAL JOB PRINTING OFFICE is the only establishment in the County running four (4) presses.

The Star has adopted the popular eight page form, and looks like another paper in its new shape.

Mrs. Hincks, of Detroit, has been spending the Christmas holidays with her parents in Goderich.

Miss Oliver, one of the High School teachers, spent the Christmas and New Year's holidays at St. Mary's.

The adjourned meeting of the General Sessions of the Peace will be held on Monday, Jan. 9th at 12 o'clock for the selection of jurors and the transaction of other business.

The "hop" at the "British Exchange" on Friday last was well attended, and a most enjoyable time was had. Mrs. Cox and Mr. Geo. Cox have the thanks of all who took part in the "tripping."

To our town merchants and others we would say that we have double the press facilities for job printing compared with any other office in this section. We invite business men to see our machinery.

Among the successful candidates from this section at the recent examination of the Toronto Normal School, were Miss Addie Jenkins, Miss Isabel Sharnan, Mr. W. H. Johnston and Mr. R. McDonald.

The new Reading Room of the Me- chanical Institute, corner of East Street and the Square, is now in proper condition, and presents a fine appearance. Take a run up to the room, and see the periodicals on file.

Big Cat.—The monster cat owned by a Leeburn bachelor must take a back seat (on the fence) when the monster specimen of the feline tribe owned by Mr. D. Ferguson, of Hamilton street, is around. The Goderich cat tips the beam at 103 lbs.

Mr. Hon. John Hibbard received 51 callers on Monday last, and entertained all most royally. In the evening the town band serenaded the American Consul, and played a number of choice selections, not forgetting the time-honored "Yankee Doodle."

The Kennedy family occupied Victoria Hall on Friday night. The hall was well filled and the rendition of Scotch songs by a family party, under the leadership of Mr. Kennedy, has been on exhibition since we last saw him, but his vigor and voice seem unimpaired.

Miss Ada Harris, who during the school year has taught at the Central school of this town, left on Thursday morning for the Normal School, Toronto. Success attend her. Miss Sleigh will have charge of Miss Harris' room during the absence of the latter.

A Very Old Aun.—For a number of years a centenarian has resided on East street in the person of Mr. McCutcheon, father of Mrs. Miller, weaver. The old gentleman had been suffering from dropsy for some time past. He lacked a few days of being 104 years of age. He was a native of Ireland.

The crayon portrait of Mr. P. Can- ton, teacher, drawn by Mr. George Stewart, of Benoit, has been on exhibition during the week in Jordan's drug store. The resemblance to the original is good, and the execution is fine, showing marked improvement over all previous efforts of Mr. Stewart in the portrait line.

The Knot Connexion.—Cupid has been "out west" and has furnished us with an interesting item regarding two former residents of West. He tells us that a man in Nebraska, of Mr. E. Aitchison, Prudfoot, eldest son of R. Prudfoot, Esq., of Goderich, and Miss Tassie Norval, the young pair have the good wishes of Canadian friends.

We call the attention of our readers to the liberal offer of two new grapes made by Mr. Beadle of St. Catharines in our advertising columns. We know of no person whose opinion upon the merits of a fruit can be more confidently trusted. He has been in the business now for nearly fifty years, and enjoys a reputation for sending out first class fruit that is unsurpassed.

MISSIONARY SERVICES.—Sermons on behalf of the Missions of the Methodist Church of Canada, will be preached in the North Street Methodist Church, Goderich, on Sunday morning, 8th inst., evening, by Rev. W. McDougall, of Clinton. On Tuesday evening the annual meeting will be held, and will be addressed by Rev. B. B. Keefe, of Wingham, and Rev. W. McDougall. These services will, doubtless, bring together large congregations.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES.—The M. E. Church in Goderich will celebrate its anniversary on Sunday and Monday next. Rev. C. M. Thompson, of St. Mary's, will preach in the morning and evening, and a Sunday School assembly will be addressed in the afternoon by Rev. Mr. Thompson, the pastor of the church and other S. S. workers. On Monday evening the teaming will be held, when a address will be delivered by Rev. Dr. Ure, Rev. C. M. Thompson, Mr. J. Turnbull, and Messrs. J. Mitchell and T. McGillivray. The members of the church are expecting a grand time.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICES.—The Brus- sels Fair says—As announced the annual anniversary services in connection with the Methodist Church were held last Sunday and Monday. Rev. Dr. Williams, of Goderich, preached two able sermons to large congregations and also addressed the Sunday school in the afternoon. On Monday evening the teaming came off and was a great success; the receipts were $85. After supper Dr. Williams entertained the very large audience for over an hour on "What a Canadian saw in England and in his present style gave a great deal of information concerning his visit to the Old Land. The rev. gentleman will always have a hearty reception in Brussels. At the conclusion of the address notes of thanks were passed to the lecturer, choir and committee, and the meeting was dismissed. An oyster supper was served in the basement of the church at the close.
