MAGNIFICENT SHOWING OF THE EDMONTON BALL TEAM

Five of the Nine Premier Positions on the Field Deacon's Men Take First Places, Leaving Four first Places for the Remaining Seven Tea

The first official percentages for the Western Canada League, covering the first half of the series from May 4 to July 9, just issued by President Eck. strom, and published will furnish pleasing reading for the Edmonton fans. The statistics show that the Edmonton players take an even higher stand than was expected and prove conclusively that on individual showings at any rate, the Deacon has gathered together the best bunch of hall players in the league. The playing of Morse, the Edmonton short stop, stands out as the foremos the eight teams. Morse leads in fielding among short stops and takes second place among the batters, being only surpassed by Clynes, the heavy-hitting

In first base fielding, Baxter of Edmonton heads the list, among second basemen Deacon White is the leader; in left field Mills of Edmonton occupies basemen Deacon White is the leader; in left field Mills of Edmenton occupies the foremost place with the phenomenal record of only one error in 51 games. Among the pitchers Deliar and Drechto are on the top, while of the six men batting more than three hundred, four are from Edmonton, the heavy ters being Morse, Drechto, Spencer and Lussi.

Thus in the nine positions on the field, five of the top places are taken by Edmonton players, leaving the other four to be filled by the seven remaining teams.

The average for the second half of the league will be issued in two parts The first in the course of ten days and the latter at the end of the season providing all the clubs co-operate in a desire to have them out in up-to-dat ime by sending in reports at the completion of each series.
