WOMEN CURED AT HOME

Women's disorders always yield from the very beginning of the treatment to the mild but effective action of Orange Lily. Within two or three days after commencing its use the improvement becomes noticeable, and this improvement continues until the patient is completely cured. Orange Lily is an applied or local treatment, and acts directly on the woman's organs, removing the congestion, toning and strengthening the nerves, and restoring perfect circulation in the parts. In order to convince all suffering women of the value of this medicine, we will send a 35-cent box, enough for ten days' treatment, absolutely FREE, by sending me her address. MRS. FRANCIS E. ### On Self-Consciousness.

By RUTH CAMERON.

All the world's a stage.
And all the men and women merely players;
They have their exits and their entrances.
On this world stage of ours which Shakepeare pictures, there are some who strut up and down, mouthing their lines with pompous self-conceit; others less fortunate suffer perennially from stage fright. They are the self-conscious.

I know of no greater handicap, nor one which must be more stubbornly fought if we would win success, than self-consciousness. The man who suffers from it is always in the center of the stage, the focus of everyone's eyes—as he thinks.

In the glances of the passing throng, he too often suspects derision; whispered comment affects him keenly. He is perpetually wondering what this or that person is thinking of him, and always he fears the worst.

Self-consciousness is of course nothing but a perverted egotism. If you are one of the unfortunately self-conscious stop and consider yourself. Are your defects unique? Or are they such as the general run of us all have? The self-conscious study themselves. They are their own keenest critics. What they cannot seem to realize is that others have neither the time nor the desire to search out and hold up to derision their real or fancied. Readjust your sense of values.

Mr. Self-conscious-man. You are not in the limelight as much as you think. If you are one of the common run, you are of vital interest only to yourself, and to those dependent upon you. That man who looks at you with calm, critical glance, is more likely to be pondering over the price of coal than the size of your nose. The girls giggling in the corner of the car are following the custom of their kind, which is to giggle at all times. Their spasms have no connection with the new hat which you feared, from the first, wasn't suited to you.

Wake up, Mr. Self-Conscious-Man. Defects in feature and in form are distributed so evenly over the human race, that one must be either surprisingly free from them, or surprisingly full of them, to attract attention. Nobody is paying one-quarter of the attention to you that you think they are.

You are not in the center of the stage, but way over to one side. It may be that some day you will be in the center, but that's another story. For by that time you will have ceased to be self-conscious.

Falling Hair Means Dandruff Is Active

Save your hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Danderine right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine to-night—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.

Miss Eva Booth to Attend S. A. Congress.

New York, Jan. 10.—The entire second cabin accommodation of the steamer Olympic for the sailing of June 29, was chartered to-day by the Salvation Army to convey 700 officers and soldiers to London, to attend the International Congress. Miss Eva Booth, head of the army in the United States, will be in charge and will be attended by her entire staff, with four brass bands, composed of 100 players.

About ten thousand delegates, representing fifty-four countries are expected to attend the congress, and the New York contingent will be the largest of any foreign country more than 3,000 miles away, will send.

Workers All.

We are workers all and sundry, toiling at our daily chores; some are cooped in gloomy buildings, some are working out of doors; some with their muscles labor, some are striving with the brain, and no work that's done in earnest ever yet was done in vain. There's reward for every effort if we to our duty keep, till the whistles blow at nightfall and we journey home to sleep. Some must work for little wages, other men have coin to spare; but the first are often happy while the last are full of care; some must rise at early morning while the others slumber late, but the gods who watch the workers in the end make all things straight. Let us therefore labor blithely, let us build and spin and reap, till the whistles blow at nightfall and we journey home to sleep. We are workers, only workers, on this swiftly whirling ball, and the Boss is keeping cases on his helpers, one and all; when we all line up for judgment on the fateful final day, each according to his record will be handed out his pay. Let us labor then with spirit—let us not like sluggards creep—till the whistles blow at nightfall and we journey home to sleep.

Jail and Fine For Radio Telephone Stock Swindlers.

New York, January 7.—James Dunlop Smith, president of the Radio-Telephone Company, was sentenced to-day to spend a year and half in the Federal prison at Atlanta and to pay a fine of $5,000, for conspiring to swindle investors in the stock of the corporation through use of the mails.

Elmer E. Burlingame, agent of a subsidiary company was sentenced to two and a half years' imprisonment and fined $10,000.

The Ellsworth Company, a subsidiary which handled the parent corporation's stock, was fined $10,500.

Sentences were imposed by Federal Judge Hunt. The Government charged that investors in Radio stock were swindled out of a million dollars by the false representations of the defendants.
