PEACE TREATY SIGNED.
AMSTERDAM, March 7.
An official announcement was made in Berlin to-day of the signing of a peace treaty between Germany and Finland and also of trade and shipping agreements and a supplementary protocol treaty was signed at noon to-day.

THE U.S. ARMY.
WASHINGTON, March 7.
Troops and supplies for General Pershing's forces now are moving in France on schedule time, it was learned to-day on high authority. While the figures may not be published, it was stated positively that transportation requirements of the army are being met by the Shipping Board and the immediate situation as to ships was described as satisfactory. A substantial American army is already in the trenches on the West front, and Secretary Baker has indicated that there may be at least a million troops in France during 1918.

THE STRENGTH OF THE ALLIES.
LONDON, March 7.
Bonar Law said he recognized that what had happened in Russia made it doubtful and would cause a difference of opinion as to what prospects there were of recovering the whole of the money loaned to Russia. The matter could be better discussed in his opinion, when the budget was introduced, but in the meanwhile he would treat the sum as receivable. Regarding the military situation, he said the Germans have transferred thirty divisions from the Russian front. The Allies still have a slight superiority in guns and men on the west front, but there's a possibility that the appearance of Austrians there would change this.

THE EMPEROR'S MESSAGE.
AMSTERDAM, March 7.
To a message of congratulation from the Vice-President of the Reichstag over the signing of the Russian peace, says the Berlin Telegram, Emperor William replied: "Complete victory fills me with gratitude, it permits us to live again one of those great moments in which we can reverently admire God's hand in history."

PRELATE DEAD.
ROME, March 7.
Cardinal Serafini, Prefect of Congregation of Propaganda, is dead. He was created Cardinal in March, 1916. He was born in Rome, August 3rd, 1852.

NARVA EVACUATED.
LONDON, March 7.
A later despatch sent by Reuter's Petrograd correspondent says the Germans have evacuated Narvo and established themselves 12 miles west of that town.

WAR FINANCE COMMITTEE.
WASHINGTON, March 7.
The Administration Bill to create a finance corporation with a fund of $4,500,000 to aid war industry, was passed by the Senate late to-day, and now goes to the House.

PRaises Wilson.
NEW YORK, March 7.
A high tribute to President Wilson was paid by Earl Reading, British Ambassador, in the address which he made here to-day in the presence of 1,200 members of the Merchants' Association, which gave a luncheon, at which he was the guest of honor. Earl Reading in his remarks dealt upon the bond of sympathy which have been established between the United States and Britain as a result of a desire on the part of both nations to attain a higher moral elevation for humanity. He told with evident emotion of the great sacrifices already made by Britain and France, adding, I pray that your sacrifices never will be as great as ours. Earl Reading said Britain had put her all into the struggle, treasure, labor and many lives, and that there could be only one result, the triumph of the Allied cause.

THE CHARGE ADMITTED.
AMSTERDAM, March 7.
Baron Von Bersche Haddenhausen, German Under Secretary for Foreign Affairs, declared in the Reichstag that the text of the despatch of July 31st, 1914, from Chancellor Von Bethmann Hollweg to Baron Von Scheon, then German Ambassador to France, revealed by the French Foreign Minister, M. Pichon, was correctly reported. In this despatch Germany demanded that France surrender the fortresses of Toul and Verdun as guarantee of her neutrality in war between Germany and Russia. The Under Secretary added: "The course of events was not influenced by it, as it was not communicated to the French Government. Herr Gothan, Progressive, observed "it was an intelligible thing for our diplomacy to do." The Independent Socialist Democratic leader, George Ledaborr, said he considered the telegram proof of the aggressive intentions of the former Chancellor.
