Meeting of Presbytery.

Meeting of Presbytery.

The Presbytery of Gachh met here on Thesday. The following was the principal business transacted: The records of several Kirk Sessions were handed in an an referred to committees for examination and report. A notice was read to the effect flast the Presbytery of Montreal intended to apply to the Gandal Assembly at their first meeting for leave to receive Mr. Angus Melver, a licentiate of the Free Church of Septland, and Mr. Leon Diome, a Fronch Evangeficial minister, into the Canada Presbyterian Church. The Clerk reported the receipt of statistical and financial reports, more or less complete, from all the congregation in the bounds except St Andrews?

Church, Berlin and Arthur. Mr. William Kay, A. M., a student who had completed his theological currectiam, was examined with a view to be taken on Trials for License. The examination having proved fully satisfactory it was agreed to askleave from the General Assembly, at their ensuing meeting, to take him on said Trials. Mr. Ball reported that he had performed a similar service at Everton and Minosa, according to appointments. It was agreed to recommend that the Rev A. A. Dramsmond, of Shakespeare and Hampstead, be chosen moderator of the General Assembly at their first meeting. The committee appointed to consider a scheme of S. S. lessons for the church reported to the effect that the Presbytery should, if they be the condition of the con of Snakespear and Adapsecad, be crossed in moderator of the General Assembly at their first meeting. The committee appointed by consider a scheme of S. S. lessons for the church reported to the effect that the Presbytery should, if they deemed it vlest rable, memorislize the General Assembly to have a scheme of lessons prepared under their sanction. It was agreed the necessary the second actual actual and the sanction of the Supreme Court having been taken upit was resolved by a majority to recommend that it shall be competent for Presbyteries, if they see occasion, to appoint alternates. A petition from the congregation of Hawksville that the Presbytery assume a debt of $61s, which was upon the church there, was considered. Mr. Empey was heard in support of the petition. Ultimately it was resolved to appoint a committee to visit Hawksville to imquire carefully into all the circumstances of the case and report. A reference from the Session of Knox Church, Acton, was referred to a committee to consider and report. A call from the gongregation of Doon and Hespeler to Mr. John M. Goodwillie, B. A., was submitted and he having signified his acceptance of the same, Mossre. Wardrope and Torrance were instructed to prescribe him subjects of trias for ordination to be undergone, at next ordinary meeting, which was appointed to be held in Knox Church, actor was authorized to inderate in a call at Scath Lather and Amaranth, and Mr. Smelle at Arthur on such a day as they might judge most suitable. The Clerk was instructed to apply to the Home Mission Committee for a grant by way of smplement of stipend to cach of these congregations. Mr. Middlenniss gave notice that he would move at next ordinary meeting that the salary of the Clerk beincreased by at least $29. The Presbytery Teasurer reported the funds in his hands and the amount of arrears due by congregations. Mr. Middlennis gave notice that he would move at next ordinary meeting that the salary of the Clerk beincreased by at least $29. The Presbytery Teasurer reported
