BANDIT KILLED BY A POSSE
Iowans in Motor Cars Chased Robber Who Wounded a Bank Cashier Mt. Pleasant, Iowa, July 7.—The lone bandit who late this afternoon entered the savings bank at Rome, shot F. W. Hileman, the cashier, and escaped with several hundred dollars in cash, was shot and instantly killed tonight by a posse several miles south of here, Clark was riding a horse and turned in several hours. The bandit, identified as Charles Clark, was scarcely 20 years old, and had been living with relatives here for several months. He was overtaken by the posse several miles south of here, Clark was riding a horse and turned in his saddle and opened fire on the motor car party. A running fight ensued. The bandit was well supplied with ammunition, and for some time succeeded in keeping far enough ahead to avoid being struck with the volley of bullets and at the same time return the fire. James O. Laughlin, a merchant of Rome, received a bullet in the back, but his injuries are not serious. When only a short distance ahead of the motorists the bandit threw both hands to his breast and tumbled from his horse. An examination showed that he had been shot through the heart. The stolen money was recovered. The injuries of Hileman are not severe. He was shot in the arms when he refused to comply with the demands of the bandit. The police tonight are searching for Clark's companions, who are believed to have aided him in getting from the bank to the woods, a short distance away, where he was given a horse.
