Miss Nellie was alone in the house. He offered to teach her the art of fancy work in a few minutes. She declined to have anything to do with him, and made an outcry, Then he took his knife, so the young lady says, and threatened to disembowel her. She got a knife also, but he took it away from her. She says he cut her fingers in taking the knife away. She screamed and he ran away, taking the fiddle with him and leaving his fancy work. The case was given into the hands of the city detectives, who came across their man yesterday afternoon in a novel unexpected way. Mary Marouen, an Arabian woman. with a poor conception of English, was in the neighborhood of Harvey's house yesterday afternoon, peddling her wares, which consist of pins and needles, cotton, etc. Harvey asked her in, making her believe he wanted to buy. He was alone in the house, and it is alleged that when she entered the door he looked it. The woman says he tried to kiss her, told her that she was a nice woman, and made objectionable proposals to her. She scratched his face, struggled and screamed He put his hand over her mouth, and when she freed herself she ran her fist through a pane of glass in the window, and he let her go. She went to the house of Detective Nickle, but as he was not at home, a telephone message was sent to the police sta-tion, and Sergt.-Major Adams sent after the man and had him brought to the cells. charge of indecent assault was laid against him by the Arabian wonan this morning, upon which charge he will be tried on Monday. Mrs Marouen is a married woman, and brought an interpreter with her to help in laying the information. Mrs. Harvey is greatly depressed by remains in jail she is without means of support. It is understood Harvey claims he took the violin in payment for his fancy work, and that he will deny the Arabian woman's story. Thomas Murphy, an old offender, was defended by B. C. In Iberville, where Mr. Tarte is to run, nom-ination will take place on Monday, Aug. 3, and in Queen's-Shelburne, where the Minister of Finance will run, nomination will take place on Wednesday, Aug. 5. The reason why Messrs. Delay was inevitable, and the return-ing officers postponed the day of nomination, in accordance with the duty imposed upon them by statute in such

New System of Tax Collection Great Success.

Nearly Two-Thirds of the Taxes Paid Already - Ratepayers Save More Money Under the New Plan.

The first installment of the city taxes was due yesterday.

This is the first year that the system of collecting taxes in three installments has been tried. It has proved an unqualified success.

Tax Collector McCoubrey estimates that about $210,000 has already been paid in. The total to be collected is about $351,000.

For the past few years, including 1895, the taxes have been collected in two installments. This system was a improvement on the old one, under which the taxes were paid en bloc. But under the late system the first installment seldom amounted to more than $150,000. The triple plan has gone

More money has been collected this year on the first installment, because the discounts are so much larger than before. Those who have paid their three installments already, and there are many of them, received a rebate of 3 per cent on the second and 5 per cent on the third installment—or 4 per cent on the average. Thus, a man whose taxes were $90, would save $2 40 by paying the entire amount on or before July 31. Those who pay two installments in one get a rebate of 3 per cent

Under the late system the local improvement rates were clapped on the first installment, so that the second installment, in many cases, was only half the amount of the first, and little was saved to the taxpayer by the discount. Now the taxes are divided into three equal parts, and the ratepayer, who pays them all in the first installhe will know what is being done ment, gets a discount of 4 per cent on and be able to give Parliament all two-thirds of his taxes. Very often he got only 3 per cent discount on one-third of his taxes before.

Young Couple Elope on a Railroad Train at Simcoe.

On the Opposition front row: Mr. The Angry Father Just in Time to See the Train Leave.

> Simcoe, Aug. 1.-An irate father, a newly-married pair of lovers, who mocked a parental ukase, a Port Rowan train pulling out from the depot, and a number of interested specta-tors were the constituent elements of a serio-comic drama which might have developed into a tragedy, which took place in Simcoe Thursday night. The hero was George Skalisky, the well-known young man who officiates as fireman on the train that covers the route between Simcoe and Port Rowan. George is a foreigner, but that does not prevent him from being a lover and an ardent one at that.

The object of his affections was Miss Abraham, well-known in local musical circles as an accomplished pianist. Father Abraham did not relish the existing state of affairs between his daughter and her lover, and ordered that all visits and communications cease; but they didn't. Things ran along for a time, and the father fondly thought that his orders were being obeyed. On the contrary the young people were simply laying plans and awaiting an opportunity for carrying them out. That time arrived. The couple met by appointment, proceeded to the Presbyterian manse and were made man and wife by Rev. W. J. Dey, M.A., pastor of St. Paul's Church. Then they headed for the depot to take the train for Port Rowan. In the meantime the father had heard of the goings-on, and set out with blood in his eye, and, it is alleged, a loaded revolver in his pistol pocket. He couldn't find George and his bride, but finally trailed them to the depot, where the engine was puffing and panting, getting ready to pull out. Mr. Abraham got a hustle on, but when yet a block off the conduc-

George and his wife safely away from The irate father was left, and he proceeded to demolish the atmosphere with chunks of oratory, more vehement than poetical. The engine rounded the turn, flinging back a long, shrill whistle, as if the newly-married fireman pulled the rope to thus express his defiance, the moon went behind a cloud, the crowd slowly dispersed, the father was left alone, and another do-

A New Remedy in General Use in Manitoba and the Northwest.

Winnipeg, July 27.-The effects of the regular wave of sickness which sweeps over this portion of the Dominion in the spring are noticeable in the increasing amount of the druggists' sales. There has been quite a run on the kidney remedy now so well known under the name of Dodd's Kidney Pills. The recovery from Bright's disease of Mr. Arthur Coley, of Somerset, through their use, an account of which appeared in the papers, gave a considerable impetus to the sale, and the remedy has become indispen-sable in many Manitoba households, to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."
