Reopening Services.

The Hamilton Road Methodist Church, which has been handsomely improved during the last few weeks, will be reopened on Sunday Lext. The services will be conducted by Rev. Wm. Godwin, of London West, at 11 a.m., and at 7 p.m. by Rev. Gec. Boyd, of Queen's Avenue Church. At 2:45 p.m. Rev. Dr. Antilf and Rev. Jos. Philip, B.D., will deliver addresses. On Monday evening a sacred concert will be given in the church. The edifice has been reshingled and the interior entirely transformed. The ceiling has been covered with cleat pine, finished in natural color, the walls beautifully papered, the woodwork painted, the seats recushioned and the platforms newly carpeted, making the church very comfortable, and giving it a fine appearance. The total cost will be about $600. All are cordially invited to the reopening services.

Great Prairie Fires in the Northwest. Great Prairie Fires in the Northwest. WINNIPER, Oct. 21.—Calgary advices say that prairie fires have done immense damage in that neighborhood during the past few days. The country has been fireswept, from the Bow River to Red Deer, in the north, and from Dog Pond, in the west, to the Calgary and Edmonton railway in the east. Thousands of tons of hay, many buildings, cattle, and probably a number of lives have been lost in the flames. Men hauling hay had to unhitch their horses and ride for their lives. The best hay districts in the Northwest have been burned over. The fire is supposed to have originated in a hunter's camp.

The Prince Was in Peril.

London, Oct. 21.—The Pall Mall Gazette London, Oct. 21.—The Pall Mall Gazette says: While Lady Brooke, at whose residence the Prince of Wales had been staying for several days, was driving him to the station, the horse reared, and it looked for a time as though the wheels of the carriage would be crushed and the outlit overturned. A policeman seeing the trouble seized the horse by the head and quieted him, thus avoiding what might have proved a serious accident. During the exciting few minutes while the horse was prancing about neither the Prince nor Lady Brooke seemed to be alarmed. A fresh horse was procured, and the Prince and his hostess continued their journey to the station, where the former boarded a train.
