Holmon, Sept. 21.

Holmy sisters, see the banner
Waving in the sky,
Are you broken down, discouraged?
Courage! help is nigh.
On that banner read this legend;
"Suffering women, hai!
Fierce's Favorite Prescription
Noer was known to fail."
The success of this remedy is wonderful.
Its record is unparalleled. It has cured thousands of cases of female weakness, irregularities, and all diseases peculiar to the sex. It can always be depended on to do exactly what is claimed for it. All the proprietors ask is a trial. That will convince the most skeptical of its wonderful virtues. Price ($1) refunded if it fails to give satisfaction. Guatantee printed on every bottle-wrapper.

Cherles W. Service of the qeerest tricks in baseball was worked by Washington against the Chi-agos in their last series. Farrel was at bat, and after having two balls called on him asked Kittredge to sweep the plate, the pitcher having the ball. The little catcher obligingly went for the broom, and Stricker, who was on third, stole home. The rule of placing the pitcher back five feet ruined several of the king twirlers, among them Keefe, Crane, John Clarkson, Levett and Haddock. And yet those men welcomed the change and voiced the belief that it would be of great benefit to them.

Tiske has been requested to publish:

To the Editor of the Free Press:

I notice in this morning's issue an article headed "Who Sanctions This?" Then the article proceeds to state that the bugles and drums of the Seventh Battalion Band are used in the "Grit parades and sideshows, etc. This assertion is incorrect. Some of the buglers, no doubt, are members of the Liberal Drum and Bugle Corps, and as citizens please their own political leaning and play with them. But the Seventh Battalion Bugle Band has not been on any parade except with its own corps or unit thereof. In regard to the "Grit Band" being alluded to by one of the officers of the Battalion to Major Hayes, the adjutant, that is untrue.

It looks as if the writer of the article in this morning's paper wisnes to injure the regiment by rehashing politics. There has been quite sufficient of such in the past. It is the last place that salished and the place and the lact an fant feeding, declares that Lactated Food is the nearest and surest approach to mother's milk, and he places great value upon this valuable food as a nourisher and builder. The best medical writers on this continent, who give special attention to infant dieting, are all agreed that Lactated Food is unsurpassed for building up and fortifying the weak system.

Mothers need not hesitate about using Lactated Food for their babies, seeing it has such strong recommendations. A full sized tin will be sent free to any mother who has not yet given this food a trial. Send full address to Wells & Richardson Company, Montreal.
