FACTS FOR BUSINESS MEN.

Every business has something that can be used to make a special bargain day one of unusual success. There are many points which can be made in referring to the store to cause an interest in what is shown there and make the customer realize that he is getting a bargain. Keep the thing going as it should, and the people will appreciate the movements and the stock and understand what that stock movement means to each buyer. If they fail to see it of their own accord tell them about it, and they will appreciate your purpose in telling them the truth, as well as they do your intention to give them what is worth the price paid.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"WAY DOWN EAST" TONIGHT. There is a ditty in "Way Down East," which will be seen at the Grand tonight and tomorrow night, that will be hummed by the hearer for days to come. It is sung by the town constable and has this refrain: "A great, big hat, with a great, big brim, All bound around with a woollen string."

It is really an old-timer, and is to be found in the early English literature. The play is one of the most diverting things of the season, and its story reaches down into the lowdownest recesses of the heart. It is a play to see often.

"A NORMANDY WEDDING." "A Normandy Wedding," which will be presented at the Grand on Friday evening, by the Grace Cameron Opera Company, includes besides the star, such popular artists as Harry Brown, Miss May Cressy, Miss Daisy King, Stephen B. French, Jun., Miss Genevieve Reynolds, William Harbert and a large chorus of shapely, comely young women. It will be given with all the detail that characterized its successful run at the Herald Square Theater, New York. The scenery is from the brushes of D. Frank Dorge and Walter Burridge, the costumes were made by Henry Dazian and Simpson, Crawford & Simpson from designs by Madame Theresia Siedle, the shoes by A. J. Cammeyer, and the whole is produced under the direction of Al Holmbrook.

Messrs. Walter Moffatt, J. G. Sear, W. J. Clark, Hector Mackay (London Junction), and Robert McIntyre (Tempo), and Messrs. William Brown and Luke Parkins, members of the first session of the church. These gentlemen delivered bright and brief speeches, all congratulating the congregation on the success which has attended the church. The musical portion of the entertainment included

WOULD ENLARGE CITY AREA

Manufacturers' Committee to Consider Important Petition.

The manufacturers' committee will meet tonight, the meeting having been called to consider a petition from the Columbia Handle Company, the Stevens Manufacturing Company, John White, the McClary Company, Leonard & Sons, Wortman & Ward, the McCormick Manufacturing Company, D. S. Perrin & Co., and Dymont, Baker & Co., asking that the city incorporate a certain portion of London township adjoining the corporation bounded by Adelaide and Trafalgar streets, which they consider good area for the location of new industries. The petitioners state that the easterly limit of the city may be determined by the fact that "as it has already been arranged with those large industries which are now located in the south end of the city, between Adelaide street and the Port Stanley Railway, to have a track laid into their yards from the Port Stanley Railway, which gives them connection with three other roads—the G. T. R., M. C. I., and C. P. R.—this track could extend further east for other industries which would want to locate in the city to obtain the above privileges, and which would also require river water."

Mr. R. B. McElheran Bids Farewell to Memorial Church. Congregation Shows Tangible Appreciation of His Labors.

An interesting time was spent at Croydon Memorial Church last evening, when nearly five hundred members of the congregation, the Sunday school, and other church bodies, assembled to bid farewell to Mr. R. B. McElheran, who has for two years worked so faithfully as lay assistant. Mr. McElheran is severing his connection with the church only to prepare himself for a still more extended sphere of usefulness. He leaves tomorrow to commence his university work at Toronto, attending Wyldville College, for the theology course, and University College for his degree of B. A.

The principal event of the evening was the presentation to Mr. McElheran of a purse containing $200 in gold, accompanied by an address expressing the appreciation of the congregation for the work done by Mr. McElheran and the sincere hope that he might be blessed in his studies and in his future career. The address was signed by Andrew Ellis and James Granger, churchwardens; A. Adams, assistant superintendent of the Sunday school; Evelyn Johnson, vice-president of the Christian Endeavor; Mary Brock, president of the Harvest Mission Band; H. Treleven, color-bearer, of the Boys' Brigade. It was read by Mr. Thomas Treleven, while Mr. O. H. Talbot made the presentation.

A pleasant feature of the evening was the welcoming of Miss Steacy, who comes to take up the duties of a parish deaconess. Miss Steacy was formerly stationed at St. Philip's Church, Toronto, and is one of the best known graduates of the Deaconess Training Home.

The remainder of the evening was occupied by the rendition of an enjoyable programme and by the serving of refreshments. Rev. C. C. Owen, rector of the church, occupied the chair.

CONGRESSMAN WILBER SAYS "Pe-ru-na is All You Claim For It."

Mr. C. F. Given, Sussex, N. B., vice-president of the Pastime Boating Club, writes: "Whenever the cold weather sets in I have for years past been very sure to catch a severe cold, which was hard to throw off, and which would leave after-effects on my constitution the most of the winter."

"Last winter I was advised to try Pe-ru-na, and within five days the cold was broken up and in five days more I was a well man. I recommended it to several of my friends and all speak the highest praise for it. There is nothing like Pe-ru-na for catarrhal affections. It is well nigh infallible as a cure, and I gladly endorse it." C. F. Given.

A Prominent Singer Saved From Loss of Voice.

Mr. Julian Weissitz, 175 Seneca St., Buffalo, N. Y., corresponding secretary of The Sangerist of New York, is the leading second bass of the Sangerist, the largest German singing society of New York and also the oldest.

In 1899 the Sangerist celebrated its fifteenth anniversary with a large celebration in New York city. The following is his testimony:

"About two years ago I caught a severe cold while travelling and which settled into catarrh of the bronchial tubes and so affected my voice that I was obliged to cancel my engagements. In distress I was advised to try Pe-ru-na, and although I had never used a patent medicine before, I sent for a bottle."

"Words but ill describe my surprise to find that within a few days I was greatly relieved and within three weeks I was entirely recovered. I am never without it now and take an occasional dose when I feel run down." Julian Weissitz.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Pe-ru-na write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

FAMOUS DUELS IN NEW ORLEANS

A small party of old-time swordsmen, gentlemen of the code, all of whom had appeared on the field a number of times during their lives, chanced to meet the other night, says the New Orleans Picayune. Among them was Mr. P. R. Tannet, who is remembered by the old school for a duel at Burthe's plantation, which he won, and his place was taken by a young man named Dauphin, who was a devotee of the stage, taking fancy to certain kinds of acting. When Dauphin was especially roused, he would write articles about the actresses in question and praise them very much. Mr. Tannet took exception to this style of doing things, so he wrote an article very critically dealing with the actresses. Carondek took it up and a duel was arranged. It was agreed to fight with pistols at ten paces and three shots. The result was a striking illustration of the fact that the most deadly enemy is often the one who is least expected.

"Carondek's fine beaver was perforated by the first shot. The second shot cut the button from his coat, and the third shot plunged a hole through his sleeve. Tannet was unhurt. Honor was saved."

"Almost immediately following Locquet challenged Tannet on the same ground. He was armed with double-barreled shotguns as Tannet was with pistols. The fight took place at Burthe's plantation, and both parties were killed outright, neither living to leave the field of honor. Locquet's body was shattered and crushed by the terrible explosion from the shotgun. But before he fell he shot and killed Tannet at the same instant."

Dying by Slow Degrees.

Although not always aware of it yet thousands of men are suffering from catarrh. It first attacks the nose or throat, then the lungs, and finally spreads all through the system. Catarrh is the only remedy that will immediately prevent the spread of this system. Every breath from this inhaler kills thousands of germs, clears the throat and nose, aids expectoration, and leaves the pain across the eyes. Catarrh eradicates every vestige of catarrh from the system, and is highly recommended also for bronchitis, asthma, deafness and lung trouble. Price $1; trial size 50 cents. Unlike common soaps, there is no damage to the clothing, and no danger to the skin; hence the saying: Sunlight Soap reduces expense. Try Sunlight Soap—Octagon Bar—next wash day, and you will see that Prof. Ellis is right. He should know.
