Hamilton, March 2.-While the de

ectives were examing Florence Kinrade yesterday morning at the house on Herkimer street, a rather surprising thing occurred.

When the officers were questioning the girl about the man who did the shooting she became quite hysterical and began to cry: "There he is; there he is!" as though she had a vision H. LUSCOMBE, BARRISTER, SOLIof the tragedy. One of those in the house came into the room and tried to quiet her, and placed a hand over her mouth. Miss Kinrade broke down shortly after, and the officers were obliged to leave.

officers made it clear that the girl had no reference to anyone in the house.

Miller Is Mysterious. The movements of Provincial Detecive Miller in connection with the Kinrade case this morning were very mysterious. He was abroad early this A. H. MacDonald, of Guelph, morning tracing up evidence which might lead to clues. He had nothing to say to the reporters who met him at his hotel at noor except this, "That the story of Miss Florence Kinrade yesterday was much in line with the theory the detectives held from first." Just what line of theory the opportunity for a lot of guessing. Certainly nobody is under arrest yet, but Feet. Ottawa, March 3.-A Western Onario deputation waited upon Hon. Dr. ugsley yesterday afternoon with a request for an addition of 1,000 feet to the 500-foot breakwater at Goderich, It claimed that this would protect the harbor from northwest winds and reduce the annual cost of dredging. The Goderich members will also endeavor to secure for their town the military camp now held at London. The deputation consisted of Mayor A. H. Macklin, Councillors Clement Munnings, Charles Humber, John Craigie, and Messrs. Robert Megaw, Wm. Horton, and M. G. Cameron, of Goderich; Mayor Hastings, J. W. Lyon, and Col.
