

BETTER THAN TOYS A WONDERFUL CREATION

A most remarkable achievement in Biscuit making-McCORMICK'S NURSERY RHYME BISCUITS.

The heroes and heroines of the Nursery Rhymes-not stamped into the biscuit, but actually raised above the surface, presenting a handsome and unique embossed

The real merits of McCormick's Nursery Rhyme Biscuits is the health-building value. The ARROW-ROOT they contain (SAME INGREDIENTS USED IN OUR FAMOUS ARROWROOT BISCUIT) helps digestion, builds up blood and body, fortifies the nerves and makes cheerful plump, healthy children.

a little man, Old King Cole, MADE ONLY BY

Factory at London. Warehouses at Montreal, Ottawa, Hamilton, Kingston, Winnipeg and Calgary

Ba, Ba Black Sheep, There was

McCORMICK'S

Advertiser

DESIGNED BY MARTHA DEAN.

NO. 8507-A STYLISH BLOUSE.

There is no style in shirtwaists more in tucks over the shoulders. The il-fabrics, such as linen, madras, ging-

A pattern of this illustration will be mailed to any address upon receipt of

PATTERN DEPARTMENT OF THE

ADVERTISER.

Please send above-mentioned pattern, as per directions given below, to 10 cents in stamps or silver.

Measurement-Bust

Age (if child's or misses' pattern).

PATTERN DEPARTMENT,

36 will require 21/2 yards of 36-inch little further."

Waist

universally becoming than those laid

Patterns

About 70 to the poun

By Phillips Oppenheim.

Malefactor," "A Make, of History," etc.

She looked at him with strained stand you. I must understand what

"Fifteen years in hell has done it," he answered, flercely. "Not even my

He reeled as though he had been

"You see," she continued, "I am struck, and the silence between them ever you may like to call it, has led

She held him tightly. Her voice

"Dear, you must. I am not an exacting woman, and I love you too well to be a hard judge of anything you might have to tell me. Ignorance is the only thing which I cannot bear.

Remember how greatly you are memory shall ever take me back."

which need explanation,"

"You have been married."

was as the silence of tragedy.

"Well?"

"I cannot."

rembled a little.

lustration shows a blouse of simple bound to ask you to lift the curtain construction, well adapted to the wash a little. Fate or instinct, or what-ham and pique, as well as taffeta and me a little way. I am not afraid to pongee. The pattern is cut in six sizes know. I have seen too much of life

"She is dead."

"You have a son."

eyes.
"Philip," she said, "I must under-has made you the man you are."

"Dear me!" Lady Caroom mur-nured. "However shall I be able to play bridge after tea if you try to addle my brain by paradoxes and rranmore mean?" He put down his cup.

'Do not dare to understand me," he "It is the most sincere unkindwhen one talks only to answer. And as for bridge—remember that this is a night of mourning. Bridge is

His voice was cold and hopeless.

nalf amazed.

of these things?

and let us forget."

She rose to her feet.

tered away recklessly.

nost sacred moments?"

prehend the humorous."

"The key," he said, "is gone.

mmon decency even would require

"I expected too much," he answered.

"I know it very well. Forgive me, you may. . . . ."

To Brooks she seemed the same her light laugh come floating across.

fingers. But Sybil saw the overbright eyes and nervous mouth and had hard work to keep back the tears. She piled the cushions about a dark corner of the divan, and chat-

"This is a night of sorrows," she exclaimed, pouring out the tea. "Mr.

Brooks and I were in the midst of a nost affectionate leave-taking-when the tea came. Why do these mun-dane things always break in upon the fanciful, the actual and the senti-

"If only he has a sense of humor,"

Brooks interposed. "After all, though, it is the grisly, ugly things that float to the top. One has to probe always for the beautiful, and it requires our rarest and most difficult sense to ap-slowly. His face was like the face of Arranmore stirred his tea charming woman as usual as he heard for too frivolous a pursuit." "Bridge a frivolous pursuit?" Sybil "Heavens, what sacriexclaimed. ege. What ought we to do, Lord

"Sit in sackcloth and ashes, and hear Brooks lecture on the poor," he all had a more or less indirect bearing answered lightly. "Brooks is a mixture of the sentimentalist and the declared in each case that some of the is the privilege of his years to be doing, and that in fact he acted in sometimes in earnest. I know nothing more depressing than to listen to a man who is in earnest."

"You are getting positively light-headed," Sybil laughed. "I can see "Not I," he answered. "I would have no pleasure in life save that which comes from an earnest pursuit of you do as I have done, rip them out page and chapter, annhilate them ut- things, good or evil."

"My dear child," Lord Arranmore Joint Committee Accepted Tender for terly. What have they to do with the life before us? To you they would answered, "when you are a little older seem evil enough, to me they are you will know that to take life serithronged with horrible memories, with ously is a sheer impossibility. You memories which, could I take them may think that you are doing it, but with me, would poison heaven itself. you are not." "There must be exceptions," Sybil So let us blot them out forever. Come to me, Catherine, and help me to fordeclared.

"There are none," Lord Arranmore answered, lightly, "outside the mad- the bridge is to be 140 feet. house. For the realization of life comes only hand in hand with in- awarded to the Stratford Bridge Comsanity. The people who have come pany at $3,410, and for the concrete nearest to it carry the mark with work to Lev. Crouse, of this city, at them all their life. For the fever of $1,380. knowledge will scorch even those who peer over the sides of the cauldron."

"If I marry you," she said, "remember that I marry your past as well as "Really, Arranmore," she drawled, your future. And there are things-"for sheer and unadulterated pessimism you are unsurpassed. You must e a very morbid person.' He shrugged his shoulders. "One is always called morbid," he remarked, "who dares to look towards born in 1850. "There are people," Lady Caroom answered, "who look always towards the clouds, even when the sun is

"Pale and Depressed" 32 to 42 inches, bust measure. Size to be a hard judge. But you must hold out your hand and take me a Headache, Dizziness.

Anaemia, Bad Blood, Indigestion, Sick

SUCCESS OF DR. HAMILTON'S

PILLS.

For her life and health Mrs. E. K. Wilkinson is indebted to the marvellous Township yesterday, and was carried curative properties of Dr. Hamilton's by a majority of 6. Pills. Her brightness, activity and present good looks are due to nothing else but the enormous benefit she derived from using this grand medicine. From her home in Newton where she esides with her large family, Mrs. Wilkinson writes: "For years I was pale, anemic and lacking in vitality. I vas a constant sufferer from indigesion, and the distress and pain it caused me, coupled with ever-increasing an-aemia, made me weaker day by day. Constant headaches, specks before the eyes and attacks of dizziness made me feel as if life were not worth living My constitution was completely underduliness in my eyes showed what a stek woman I was. I began to take Dr. got back my strength and my appetite grew much stronger and I enjoyed my meals thoroughly. I felt happier and more contented and the sickly pallor present office fifteen years ago. of my face was replaced by a bright rosy color which proved that a strong medicine was at work. In a few months Dr. Hamilton's Pills brought me from condition of deathly despair to ro-You can obtain the same results by me in some of your moods. I could "I am in the minority," Low more said, smiling. "I feel my coming isolated. Let us goal will ask no questions. You shall tell "No, let us convert you "I am in the minority," Lord Arran-

"No, let us convert you instead," me your own way, and what you wish Sybil declared. "We want to look at to leave out—leave it out. Come, is the sun, and we want to look at this so hard a task?"

We want to look at the sun, and we want to take you will us. You are really a sun to take you will be a sun t us. You are really a very stupid He seemed frozen into inanition. His person, you know. Why do you want face was like the cast of a dead man's, to stay all alone amongst shadows?"

Arranmore smiled faintly, shall never seek for it, I shall never "The sun shines," he sald, "only find it. I have known what madness for those who have eyes to see it." is, and I am afraid. Shall we go into the hall? I fancy that they are "Blindness is not incurable," answered.

"Save when the light in the eyes is dead," he answered. "Come, shall we She looked at him, half terrified, play a game at four-handed bil "You mean this as final?" she said, llards? deliberately. "You refuse to offer any explanation, the explanation which

It resolved itself into a match between Lady Caroom and Lord Arranwere both players far more, who above the average. Sybil and Brooks talked, but for once her attention wandered. She seemed listening to the click of the billiard balls, and watching the man and the woman between "I do not know that you will ever Brooks noticed her absorption, and whom all conversation seemed dead. regret this," she said. "I pray that abandoned his own attempts to in-

[To Be Continued.]

her light laugh come floating across SARNIA WANTS THE BIG I. B. S. PICNIC

Detroit and Other Places Would Also Like to Have the Annual Outing.

The Irish Benevolent Society have not yet decided where they will hold "Life," Lady Caroom said, helping their annual picnic this year, but will herself recklessly to muffin, "is such decide before the week ends, wonderful mixture of the real and On Thursday a deputation from St. Thomas and Port Stanley will wait on mental, one is always treading on the the sub-committee having this matheels of the other. The little man ter in band, and will endeavor to who turns the handle must have lots make arrangements to have the annual affair in Port Stanley as usual. Yesterday several gentlemen from > the claims of the Tunnel City strongly before the I. B. S. A number of communications from Detroit have been received, and it is possible that the City of the Straits will be the destination of the Irish

Sarnia interviewed them, and placed

a carved image. Only Brooks seemed still unconscious of the shadow which BANKER M'GILL TELLS OF MANIPULATIONS

Bought Ontario Bank Stock, B u It Appeared as Transferred to Lord Strathcona.

Toronto, June 22. - The examination of Charles McGill, general manaascertain whether he should be placed on the list of contributors of the bank 1903 he had bought $125,000, though it icated. appeared on the books as having been transferred to Sir William Macdonald and Lord Strathcona. As in yesterday's evidence, he gave several other instances of manipulations with the stock and various transactions, which on the collapse of the institution. He hideous pessimist, you know, and it directors were aware of what he was some of these matters on the directors' instance, while in others he acted or his own initiative, afterward telling them about it.

BRIDGE CONTRACT LET

Structure Over Aux Sable.

The joint committee appointed by Middlesex and Lambton counties met today and awarded the contracts for Thedford bridge over the Aux Sauble River. The tenders called for a steel superstructure and concrete flooring, and abutments. The span of The contract for the steel work was joint committee from Oxford and Middlesex counties will meet on Lady Caroom helped herself to more Monday to let the contracts for the bridge between East and West Nis-

> PAINTER GREGORY DEAD. Great Marlow, Eng., June 22.-Edward John Gregory, R. A., president of the royal institute of painters in water colors, died here today. He was

INDIAN RAILWAY WRECK. Madras, June 22.—Twelve natives were killed and fourteen others were njured here coday by the derailing he rails the cars fell down an emof a passenger trein. After leaving

BYLAW CARRIED.

Campbellford, June 22.—A bylaw to give the Northumberland Pulp Company a fixed assessment of $2,000 for 10 years, on a pulp mill to be erected by the company near Rainy Falls, to cost $10,000, and employ 25 hands, was voted on by the ratepayers of Seymour

HALDANE PLEASED.

Montreal, June 22.-Hon. R. Haldane, secretary of state for war, has cabled from London to Mr. F. W Thompson, managing director of the Ogilvie Milling Company: "Congratulations on your patriotism in giving extra holidays to your militia employees. Such an example stimulates and encourages us here."

DRAYTON RESIGNS. Toronto, June 22.-Mr. G. S. Fullerton, K.C., counsel for the corporation the most agonizing kind shot through ned, and the constant pallor and of Toronto, has resigned, on account my knee as if hot irons were piercing of illness. He has been on leave of my flesh. absence for some time, but his health Hamilton's Pills, and the improvement shows no signs of improvement. Mr. although slow was sure. I gradually H. L. Drayton, county crown attorney, is spoken of as his successor. The position has a salary of $6,000 a year. Mr. Drayton was appointed to his

> OLD SLAVE DEAD. Windsor, June 22 .- William John-

ston, an aged negro, is dead, at the know its power over pain is simply Home of the Friendless, leaving unfinished an autobiography on which he There is not an ingredient in Nervisian that the leaving the condition with the condition of the con You can obtain the same results by using Dr. Hamilton's Pills—beware of the substitutor that offers you anything except Dr. Hamilton's Pills. 25 cents per box, or five boxes for $1.00, at all dealers or the Catarrhozone Company, Kingston, Ont.

Sished an autobiography on which he had been working under conditions of the attention of abject poverty for several years. When and old can use it, internally or externally. Safe, sure and 50 years in the old man first came to the attention of city charity workers he was almost starving, but he objected to entering the home, fearing his literary pursuits bottles at all dealers.

We have an immense range of Silks for summer wear, and they're absolutely new, harmonizing with the prevailing styles and with the highest conception of good taste. In this advertisement we mention only a few of our leaders. We've plenty of other staple lines, and exclusive novelties, and they are all marked at the same price-moderateness as

PRINTED JAP FOULARD-White grounds, with blue and black spots. Navy grounds with white spots and designs. Black grounds with white spots and designs. All at, per yard ...... 39¢

TAMOLINES AND TAFFETAS-Black and white checks; different sizes. Grey hair-line stripe, with embroidered spot, etc. Special at ....................... 50¢ SPECIAL BLACK JAP TAFFETA, 37 inches wide; heavy weight; beautiful finish, 50¢ SPECIAL BLACK FRENCH TAFFETTA, 36 inches wide; good, firm quality. $1.25

Two Black Voile Specials

Fancy Stripe Black Voile, 42 inches wide; splendid black; one piece

Black Bordered Voile, 46 inches wide; makes beautiful dress skirt; limited quantity; to clear at ............69¢

SOLE AGENTS FOR THE LADIES' HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS.

@ PARKER 150 DUNDAS ST., and CARLING ST

author of one little pamphlet, in which he told his experience as a southern slave, and was working on a second

LABOR PREPARES TO FIGHT WHITE PLAGUE

Syracuse, N. Y., June 22.—Philip V Darahy, director of the labor department of the State Charities Association and state commissioner of immisubtle sayings beforehand! What does ger of the defunct Ontarlo Bank, to gration, before the International Boot 'and Shoe Workers' convention here today announced that a state league, to for 1,713 shares, was continued this be formed of representatives of labor morning before Referee George Kap- unions, will be organized this fall to pele. There was little new in his evi- fight consumption, and he urged that dence. McGill, however, declared that a national league be formed. He deof the new stock issued by the bank in clared that sweatshops must be erad-

Mrs. Raymond Robins, of Chicago, president of the Woman's Trade Union League, spoke for shorter hours and time for the development of the intellectual faculties. The report of Secretary-Treasurer Baine flayed the efforts to destroy the union. There were reported expenditures of $495,180, and receipts of $498,160 in two years.

TWO BANKS ROBBED BY BOLD DESPERADOES

Fort Worth, Texas, June 22. - A branch of the Wagner Bank and Trust Company on Main street, in the heart of the business section was held up by a lone highwayman at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The robber escaped in an automobile with $8,100 in currency. Officers are in pursuit.

Ithaca, N. Y., June 23.-Four men drove up to the Citizen's National Bank of Locke, N. Y., early this morning, blew up the vault and escaped with $2,600 in bills. Senator Charles T. Hewitt, of Cayuga County, who is president of the bank, fired several shots at them from his verandah, and they answered him, but none of the FOURNIER'S CASE.

Montreal, June 22.—The case of Jules Fournier, editor of Le Nationaliste, who vas recently sentenced to three months imprisonment for contempt of court seems likely to become a cause celebre.
Armand Lavergne, M.L.A., prominent Nationalist, declared that the case would be carried to the privy council if neces-

WARM AT MONTREAL. Montreal, June 22.-Montrealers swelter-

10 Years Rheumatism In Left Knee.

Treatment at Hot Springs and Years of Experiment with Noted Physicians Failed.

"NERVILINE" CURED QUICKLY.

Nearly every old person is troubled more or less with rheumatism, and few actually escape its manifold tortures. Some it may deform, others it disables, many it completely destroys.

"I was born with a strong and predisposing tendency to rheumatism, my father and mother both having had it for years," writes J. H. Hunter, from Saratoga. "The aches, the pains, the throbbing muscles,-I endured them all, -but it was in my left knee that the disease had the worst hold. Pains of Nothing did me any good till I used Nerviline. I rubbed it over the sore place four to six times each day and bound on warm flannel cloths. Every night I took half a teaspoonful of Nerviline in hot sweetened water My cure was completed after several months and I have never since had a single twinge. I strongly urge every sufferer from any rheumatic disease lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, toothache, or earache to test Nerviline.

The Boot

Is this a picture of one of the instruments of the Inquisition?

Not much! This is what your Uncle Dudley thinks he has on his feet when he is wearing ordinary shoes-they feel just that bad-he is tortured and distressed. What is the matter with Uncle Dudley's shoes? They're "green"-that's all.

The leather was "green" in the first place-cheap leather usual-

The workmanship was "green" in the second place-cheap labor

And those shoes were lasted for about a day-that's all "com mercialized" shoes ever are.

Uncle Dudley's shoes were made to hold their shape merely until Uncle Dudley or some other E.Z. mark bought 'em-then their manufacturer didn't care what happened.

Because the shape wasn't in his shoes permanently, Uncle Dudley's went wrong the first day he wore them. And when they went wrong they commenced to hurt-until Uncle

Dudley feels as he looks—a picture of the horrible tortures of the

The Hartt Shoe

Ever wear a pair of "green shoes," reader? Guess we all have! Only one way to avoid 'em-wear shoes made of seasoned leather by shoemakers who know how-The Hartt Shoe is just such a shoe. We buy the toughest, clearest, soundest, most closely textured, most pliable leather in the world.

And our shoemakers are such by right of birth. And they build the shape permanently-by the slow, sure process of know-how workmanship into each Hartt shoe itself.

That's why a Hartt Shoe feels as comfortable as a homespun sock when you try it on-why it feels the same a day or so afterand just as good nine months or a year later on-

And why it holds its shapely elegance all the time you wear it. See the Hartt Shoe at your better class shoe shop-judge its excellence for yourself.

If you buy a pair—and we know you will—you'll say, like the thousands of its wearers, "I'll never wear any other brand of shoe."

"CANADA'S BEST SHOEMAKERS"

THE HARTT BOOT AND SHOE CO. LIMITED, FREDERICTON, N.E.

Buchess Lawn Waists

are as stylish as they are dainty. We show one of the latest "Duchess" styles with the new Dutch collar edged with Valenciennes lace. This waist has three-quarter sleeves, with turn-back cuffs edged with lace. We also make these Lawn Waists with the low cut, collarless Dutch neck. $1 up.

Your dealer should have these w styles in "Duchess" Waists. If not, let us know and we will see that you are supplied.

THE DUNEAP MFG. CO., - MONTREAL.

STAN BOD, 18 King to 82 degrees, and not a breath of wind to

Grand Union Hotel Rooms, $1.00 a Day

