Forth Worth, Texas, Sept. 13-Judge Lane of the corporation court today decided against a Peary contender in an argument over who discovered the pole. B. C. McHam and Lewis D. Wall had the dispute. The patrolman said he was impartial when he stopped the debate.

Mr. Beck furnished Mr. Jones with an estimate of the cost of the original pumping plant, $26,325, and this satisfied the chairman. The agreement was then read over to both parties, and they signed it. Later Secretary Ellwood then attached the official seal and the document was placed in the
