To Pay Tribute To War Dead With 2 Minutes Silence, Nov. 11

OTTAWA, Oct. 19.—(Canadian Press.)—In compliance with the request of the British Colonial Office, the Canadian Government will shortly issue a proclamation calling upon all Canadians to observe the two minutes of silence from 11 o'clock in the forenoon until two minutes after, on Friday, Nov. 11, the anniversary of the actual signing of the Special commemoration ceremonies will be held on Monday, Nov. 7, as provided by the act passed at the last sitting of Parliament.

The two minutes of silence will be observed on Nov. 11, in order to make this mark of respect to those who fell, and in memory of the ending of the war, uniform throughout the empire. As usual all movement will cease for the period, including ships and trains.

The minister of labor, Hon. Gideon Robertson, spoke briefly, and treated the Liberal leader and his policy very briefly, but dealt with the policy as butlined by Mr. Crerar at some length. He denounced the alliance between labor and farmer, and went particularly into details of the consequences of free trade in Canada. In the evening Senator Robertson met the labormen in their hall, and spoke to them at Liberals throughout Canada who think
