

WEAK HEART*NERVES BADLY SHATTERED

Many a woman who should be strong and healthy, full of life and energy, is bound by the shackles of ill-health. Some disease or constitutional disturbance has left its mark in the form of a weak heart, shattered nerves, impoverished blood and an exhausted condition of the whole system.

In MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS they will find a remedy that will supply food for the exhausted nerves, one that will strengthen and regulate the weak heart and invigorate the whole system. Mrs. W. W. Pearce, 14 Seaton street, Toronto, Ont., writes: "I was left with a weak heart and in a run-down condition from the flu. My nerves were badly shattered, and I had such pains around my heart I could not sleep much at night. I took several doctors' medicines without getting any better. My husband got me to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and after taking six boxes I got relief, and after taking six boxes I have been well and not bothered since."

Maines Sas President Heard Was Notified of Meeting

By GEORGE MAINES.

TORONTO, Nov. 4.—The report from London that Mr. Heard, of the London Club, was not notified of a meeting at Hamilton for Saturday, Nov. 5 and 6, is untrue. President Heard and the London club received exactly the same notice as the other members of the league received, and I have taken the trouble to find out that he personally received this notice.

The idea in calling a meeting for the two days was to give those members who desired an opportunity to informally discuss important matters on Saturday if they wished with the regular directors meeting Sunday. No M.O. League official would ever think of trying to hold any kind of a league meeting without proper and due notice to every club; it never has been done, and never will be done, as long as the present officials are in office.

NEW ZEALAND FINANCES SOUND.

London, Nov. 5.—A Reuter cable from Wellington says that the financial statement made to the New Zealand Parliament by Premier W. F. Massey shows the country is in a sound financial position.

MANY LAKE SHIPS CAUGHT IN STORM
Considerable Damage Is Done
by Gale That Sweeps Wide Area.

Toronto, Nov. 5.—There is some anxiety here concerning the safety of lake vessels afloat last night during the gale that raked over Lake Ontario and other parts of the Great Lakes. There are no definite reports of vessels in trouble, but it is known that several were in the track of the storm.

In and about Toronto considerable damage was caused by falling signs, trees, etc. About two inches of snow greeted the early riser here, but the white blanket soon disappeared.

Telegraph companies were especially hampered by the gale last night and this morning. The Canadian Pacific and Canadian National telegraphs, and the Bell Telephone Company all have a large number of poles down near Montreal. Gangs of men are working in an endeavor to restore early communication with all points.

Ottawa Experiences Its First Blizzard

Ottawa, Nov. 5.—Blizzards weather descended on Ottawa last evening, delaying trains, affecting long distance communication, and causing minor accidents in the city streets. Starting with a few flurries of snow in the late afternoon, the storm assumed the proportions of a blizzard by 8 o'clock, and kept up steadily all night, covering the ground with more than an inch of snow. Weather forecasts give little hope of the snow melting away, as it is predicted that strong northwestern cold winds will follow.

Reports from Montreal this morning indicate that transportation facilities are severely hampered by the storm.

Vessels At Kingston Remain in Shelter

Kingston, Nov. 5.—A strong wind prevailed here last night, but no damage has been reported. The vessels in port took no chances and did not get out until the high seas had somewhat abated this morning. There was a flurry of snow during the evening.

CHARLES WILL NOT BE INTERNEED AT GALATZ

Bucharest, Nov. 5.—Former Emperor Charles of Austria and his wife apparently are not to be interned at Galatz, on the Danube, northeast of this city. It was indicated by plans made public here yesterday. The former emperor and empress left Orsova, a town on the Danube, near the Rumanian frontier, yesterday morning, being placed on board a special train, which did not pass through Bucharest. They were due in Galatz last evening.

It was reported here during the day that the couple would embark at once on the British light cruiser Carfax, which would be under the command of a British vice-admiral. It appeared to be the intention to have the cruiser sail at once, as it was said she would be conveyed by four Rumanian launches.

SINN FEIN ATTACK BRITISH GARRISON

and Sir Edward Carson, former Ulster leader in the House of Commons, but this was denied by the Ulster premier upon his arrival.

There is no question of a consultation between the Sinn Fein delegates and Sir James over the week-end. With the exception of Arthur Griffith, the delegates left for Ireland last night. Mr. Griffith might go today, it was said this forenoon.

It is stated that the trip of the delegates to Ireland is without significance, and that they will return to London Monday.

Developments in the negotiations toward an Irish settlement are now understood to hinge on the conference which Sir James Craig, the Ulster premier, will have with the Sinn Fein delegates on Monday. A special meeting was held by the Ulster cabinet in Belfast Friday prior to the departure of Sir James for London. He will spend the week-end with his son at Eton, meeting the prime minister, it is expected, on Monday.

Promised Solution.
At Sinn Fein headquarters today it was said that the British representatives and the Sinn Feiners had reached a measure of accord that promised a solution of all issues and that Ulster now was as great a stumbling block in the path of the negotiations from the Government's point of view as that of the Sinn Fein.

Desmond Fitzgerald, of the Sinn Fein party, in a statement this afternoon definitely denied a number of reports published in London newspapers relative to points on which an agreement was said to have been reached by the conference.

He declared untrue rumors that the Sinn Feiners had accepted the principle of dominion status and British control of Irish ports and had agreed to contribute from the Irish treasury to the imperial treasury.

He refused to disclose any points which have been agreed upon thus far, but it is said in other Irish quarters that the determination of the Sinn Feiners not to accept the principle of allegiance to the British crown remains unshaken.

An "Associate Nation."
It is intimated in these quarters that a formula has been agreed upon, bridging the difficulty whereby Ireland would not be designated as a British dominion, but as an "associate nation." It is further stated that a solution of the Ulster problem must come, if it comes at all, through Ulster's recognition of the principle of unity in Ireland.

Two weeks from the present is the date now considered possible for Prime Minister David Lloyd George to go to Washington for the armaments conference, according to his secretary.

"Our bags are not packed in anticipation of momentary departure," the secretary stated this afternoon, "but almost every other preparation except the actual packing of baggage has been made and should the present obstacles be cleared the prime minister will make quick work of his leave-taking."

Confesses To Slaying His Friend Who Desired To End Life

NEW YORK, Nov. 5.—From the lips of a frightened man caught in the police mesh and surrounded by menacing detectives at police headquarters here, but none more strange tales, but told yesterday to Captain Arthur Curry, of the homicide bureau, by Alexander Savin of New York. Savin confessed to killing Frank Passino, his room mate and friend, Sunday on an unfrequented road near the Russian cemetery at South River, N. J.

After hours of questioning and after he had been confronted with another friend who saw him near the scene of the crime, Savin said he fired four shots into Passino, who wanted to suicide.

Savin has been indicted for murder by a New Jersey grand jury and will be extradited to that state.

DIET FREE OF SALT
CURES SOME ILLS

Russians are the most neurotic of any nation in the world.

The patients appear on the stage of the auditorium in full view of the audience, and one sufferer was carried from the hospital to the medical school on a cot. In each case X-ray photos disclosing valuable data on the nature of the illness were shown to those present.

Dr. Barker was introduced to the academy members by Dr. Moyle, now on the medical staff of Byron Sanatorium, who is a former pupil, having attended Johns Hopkins Medical School. He paid a tribute to Dr. Barker's manner which proved agreeable to pupil and teacher.

Gives Credit to Osler.
In responding to these compliments, Dr. Barker said: "It was a feeble attempt to imitate my old master, Sir William Osler. Let me congratulate you on this magnificent building. Medical education does not pay for itself. It is fortunate that your Government has recognized the need of subsidizing medical education. It is a great thing for Ontario, particularly Western Ontario, to have such a school and modern equipment. You had the men, but you did not have the building and equipment."

Following the clinic, which was witnessed by several hundred people, with the auditorium packed to capacity, Dr. Barker was the guest of the Western Ontario Academy of Medicine at an informal dinner held at the Tecumseh hotel. Dr. Barker is a native of Canada, Norwich, Oxford County, being his birthplace.

Will Come to London.
Dr. F. W. Hughes, president of the academy, presided at the meeting, and announced that he had received a telegram from Lieut.-Col. Sir William Taylor of Dublin, who is in the United States attending the convention of the American College of Surgeons, stating that he had accepted the invitation of the academy to visit London next Wednesday. Sir William Taylor will likely be the guest of the academy at a dinner party next Wednesday, and may deliver an address to the members present. Further details will be announced early next week. He is a reputed writer of medical works and president of the Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland.

An effort is being made to bring Sir Robert Wood, a prominent member of the faculty of Dublin University to London to address the Western Ontario Academy of Medicine. He is one of the foremost harpists of the British Isles, and is at present in the United States.

Gas, Indigestion,
Stomach Misery
—"Diapepsin"

"Pape's Diapepsin" really does put bad stomachs in order—"really does" overcome indigestion, dyspepsia, gas, heartburn and sourness in five minutes—that just makes Pape's Diapepsin the largest selling stomach regulator in the world. If what you eat ferments into stubborn lumps, you belch gas and eructate sour, undigested food and acid; head is dizzy and aches, remember the moment "Pape's Diapepsin" comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's truly astonishing—almost marvelous—and the joy is its harmlessness. A large sixty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin is worth its weight in gold to men and women who can't get their stomachs regulated. It belongs in your home—should always be kept handy in case of a sick, sour, upset stomach during the day or at night. It's the most efficient antacid and stomach regulator in the world.

LATE LOCAL NEWS

ALD. G. A. WENIG is going to Chicago on Tuesday to address the National Bicycle and Cycle Dealers' Association on "Ethics Used in Successful Bicycle Merchandising."

ON MONDAY THE CORNERSTONES of the Hale Street Methodist Church and Sunday School will be laid. Mayor Little and Mrs. A. A. Langford will lay the two church cornerstones while others will lay those of the Sunday school.

AMONG THE MEN who have made advertising the great constructive force that it is today in the United States is John Howie Wright, who will address the London Advertising and Sales Club in the Tecumseh Hotel next Tuesday evening at a dinner to be given there.

CORBETT, GENERAL CHAIRMAN of the Grand Trunk Carriers' Union, has arrived home from Montreal, after discussing longer hours in the car shops with G. T. R. officials. "I am looking for an improvement in conditions," stated Mr. Corbett on Saturday. "The men are at present working only 16 days a month. We are asking that they be employed five days a week. I have every hope that longer hours will be secured."

Obituaries*MRS. E. MOFFAT DIES

The death took place Friday night in Victoria Hospital of Mrs. Elizabeth Moffat, 11 years old. Mrs. Moffat resided in this city for the past 35 years. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. E. W. Pridham of 388 Dame street. The funeral will be held Monday from Kilgusworth's undertaking parlors. The services will be conducted by the Rev. A. A. Bice.

Interment will be made at Woodland Cemetery.

WILL PROVIDE WORK IF COMPETITION REMOVED

London, Nov. 5.—Canadian Press Cable.—Six million pounds to be spent mostly in the direction which would find work for 20,000 of London's unemployed, is the inducement which Lord Albert Henry Stanley Ashfield, head of London's great underground railway omnibus combine, holds out to the Government if it will reciprocate by granting the combine certain safeguards against competition. The Government's answer is being awaited with keen interest.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE.

Cargill, Nov. 4.—Melvin Sweiger, an Elderslie Township lad, while on his way home from Cantire school on Thursday, had a narrow escape from death, when he was knocked down and run over by an automobile driven by a resident of Paisley. Fortunately the wheels did not pass over his body, and he escaped with only a few bruises and a bad scare. Young Sweiger, along with two other boys, was walking along and did not hear the approaching car until the horn was blown, and in his excitement he ran directly in front of the car.

GIN PILLS

If you find medicine does not relieve you of kidney trouble, you should benefit by the experience of Alexander LaRue, aged 72. For years, Mr. LaRue suffered with kidney afflictions, and he finally sent for two boxes of Gin Pills. He writes: "They did me more good than all the medicine I had taken." Why suffer longer? Gin Pills are sold by all druggists and dealers. 50c a box.

Each Local Druggist Will Give Away 50 Free Packages, 6 of Which Are Full Size 50-Cent Jars.

Twenty-five years ago, in a little North Carolina town, a druggist discovered a process of combining the old-fashioned remedies—Camphor, Turpentine and Menthol—with certain volatile oils such as Eucalyptus, Thyme, and Juniper, so that, when applied externally, the body heat would vaporize these ingredients. These vapors, inhaled all night long, carry the medication with each breath, direct to the air passages and lungs.

Today this vapor treatment, Vicks VapoRub, is almost universally used throughout the South in preference to internal "dosing." It is quick in its action, and what is more important, particularly to mothers with small children, it is applied externally and hence does not disturb the most delicate stomach.

GOOD AT YOUR DRUGGIST'S for a free package of Vicks VapoRub as long as the free supply lasts. Each Druggist has 50 packages, 6 of which are full-size 50c jars, to be given to the first six presenting coupons. Only one sample allowed each family.

Our Thanksgiving Message

Once more, like some revolving light that gladdens the sailor's eye, the Day of National Thanksgiving comes again. And from a thousand temples the song of gratitude will ascend; from uncounted homes the voice of love and mirth will greet the returning feet of unforgotten friends; from innumerable hearts a silent hymn of praise will chant the blessings of the by-gone year.

And our young and awakening nation, our beloved Canada, will again repeat the familiar strain of gratitude and trust—and seldom with fuller heart than now. Coupled with our sense of many a deficiency, our consciousness of many a fault, will be our ever-deepening paean for growing prosperity and increasing achievement and enlarging vision. Amid the surging billows that oversweep so large a portion of the world, Canada stands, like a kindly beacon, with the morning light upon her brow, virgin among the great nations of the earth. Learning from the often bitter experience of older lands, she seeks to avoid their errors and to emulate their virtues; and, while rejoicing in her ever multiplying harvests, her ever-widening manufactories, her ever-increasing wealth, she still seeks to remember that her life "consisteth not in the abundance of the things that she possesseth," and that her true crown and glory are in the nobility of her sons, the happiness of her homes, the faith and honor of her national life. In all of these we rejoice on this Thanksgiving Day, which now sets apart as forever sacred that hour when white-robed peace returned with healing in her wings.

OAK HALL is thankful for a year of prosperity, for an outlook fairer than she has known before. But OAK HALL is a thousand times more thankful for this—for the confidence of countless patrons, for the friendship and gratitude of the host who began as customers and now continue as tried and trusted friends. Such is OAK HALL'S contribution to the far-flung song of thanksgiving.
