A few days ago a report was freely circulated among the Canadian clothing trade that one of the largest wholesale ready-made clothing concerns in Canada was on its last legs. Owing to the extraordinarily mild winter-their unprecedently heavy stock-the very small demand for goods-extraordinarily mild winter-their unprecedently heavy stock-the very small demand for goods-extraordinarily mild winter-their unprecedently would be forced like many another good house to and to the panic in the financial world-they would be forced like many another good house to throw up the sponge unless something turned up.

SOMETHING DID TURN UP.

Knowing that there was only one retail house in Canada that was not already overloaded with goods an urgent despatch was sent to The Bell to come at once and look at the stock. WE WENT. WE SAW. WE BOUGHT. We bought for spot cash at about 50c. on the dollar all the stock that was fresh and desirable—Men's Suits, Men's Overcoats, Boys' Suits, Boys' Overcoats, Mens' Youths' and Boys' Ready-made Clothing of all kinds. Stacks and Stacks of 'em at about one half the usual wholesale price.

"THE BELL" doesn't think it was good policy for Messrs.

at such ruinous prices, but then they've got temporary relief and if they and their creditors are satisfied it's not our business to complain. - & Co. to sell their stock,

BUT NOW WE'RE GOING TO SELL

And now we will sell at such prices as were never before heard of. To-day and to-morrow, day and night, we're busy getting this gigantic purchase into shape and on

We commence what, we believe will be the biggest clothing sale ever held in Canada.
