Disputed John T. Lyons, a Montreal Druggist, Under Arrest in New York.

Thomas O'Connor against Henry O'Connor was a trial commenced on Tuesday and concluded yesterday, and arises out of the will of the late Michael O'Connor (father of the oarsman.) By the will his property was left to the defendant, Henry O'Connor. The plaintiff claimed to have expended a considerable amount of his own money in the erection of the house, 36 Tate-street, on an agreement with the father that the house should ultimately be his. The witnesses were brothers and sisters of the parties. The agreement on which the plaintiff claimed was not proved, and the action was dismissed without costs. At the suggestion of Mr. Justice Falconbridge the plaintiff will be allowed for his outlay on the property. Mr. F. W. Carey was counsel for plaintiff and Mr. H. S. Osler for defendant.

Island Patents and Railway Matters. City Solicigor Caswell yesterday received a communication from Hon. Mr. Daly, Minister of the Interior, making an appointment to confer with a corporation deputation respecting the objections filed by the Island Association and the Toronto Ferry Company against the application of the city for patents for the foreshores of the Island. The deputation will also enquire about the Queen-street subway and the Lansdowne-avenue crosssubway and the Lansdowne-avenue crossing, which are now under consideration by the Railway Committee. The conference with the Minister of the Interior will take place at 11 o'clock next Tuesday required.

Judge Fitzgerald of Welland, Major Sam Hughes, M.P., of Lindsay, Messrs. W. J. Parkhilf of Midland, W. H. Stewart of Sarnia, Robert Birmingham of Toronto and other leading Orangemen met in this city yesterday to arrange for the annual meeting of the Grand Orange Lodge of British America, to be held in Halifax, N.S., on July 30 and following days. It is understood special excursions will be run, the fare being within reach of all.

The Judge Seized With Illness.

His Honor Judge W. W. Fitzgerald of Welland was taken suddenly ill yesterday while dining at the Walker House. The effects of a severe attack of la grippe Honor was sufficiently recovered to return to his home in the evening.

Found the Bird Had Flown. County Constable Coxworth arrested a man named Pfeffer in Oak-street Tues-day evening. Pfeffer is wanted in Stouffville on a charge of non-support of his wife. He was locked up in a room at the Clyde Hotel, while his captor went for a walk. Before the constable had re-turned Pfeffer also went for a stroll, and has not since been re-arrested.

Dyspepsia and Indigestion.—C. W. Snow & Co. Syracuse. N.Y. writes: "Please send us ten gross of Pills. We are selling more of Parmalee's Pills than any other Pill we keep. They have a great reputation for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint." Mr. Chas. A. Smith, Lindsny, writes: "Parmelee's Pills are an excellent medicine. My sister has been troubled with severe headache, but these pills have cured her."

BUILT FOR BUSINESS."

THAT'S the situation in a nutshell. A jubilee of prices for Friday and Saturday that will so far distance competitors that they can't even catch our shadows. The Army and Navy Stores are living monuments consecrated to BARGAINS! We propose to fight HIGH PRICES as the authorities fight smallpox! We have what frontiersmen call a "cinch" on Clothing and Dry Goods! Three Big Stores! A double team, Dry Goods and Clothing. To-morrow and Saturday they'll draw the biggest load of customers ever seen. The whole harvest of Dress Goods is as delightfully fresh as a clover field just cut.
