bed, and the doctor told me I would have to have an operation, and that I might die during the operation. I wrote to my sister about it and she advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Through personal experience I have found it the best medicine in the world for female troubles, for it has cured me, and I did not have to have the operation after all. The Compound also helped me while passing through Change of Life."—Mrs. LETITIA BLAIR, Canifton, Ontario.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Com-

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has proved to be the most successful has proved to be the most successful remedy for curing the worst forms of female ills, including displacements, inflammation, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result has been worth millions to suffering women.

WATFORD, FEBRUARY 9, 1912.

Will Teach Manners.

At the present time—at every time in the history of the civilized family—there is and has been great need for special attention to the inculcating of good manners in the rising generation.

A kindly heart is the basis of good manners, but proper formalities should also be present; these forms are the outward expression of the inward feeling.

Earl Grey, a few months ago, when addressing the Boy Scouts, remarked that the boys and girls of Canada did not have as good manners as he would like to see, and hoped that this condition would improve. Since then the principals of a good many of the public schools have formed a plan by which good manners would be taught in the school, says a writer in the Toronto Globe.

The training of the child should, of course, be the work of the home and the mother, but now-a-days it seems the mother has too much to do or does not know herself how to train the children or what good man-ners are, so this work falls upon the teachers if the children are to be spiritual, but now the authorities are making a strong effort to emsibilities of the teacher? The more the teachers are burdened the less ing the rudiments of good manners.

It is hoped that a plan may be the children are taught what good cultivating the same.

Each class is to have "a circle of good manners", and the respect that should be shown to womanhood, to age, and to God is to be impressed on the children; the little courtesies that one should show to one's equals, to one's superiors, to acquaintances, and to strangers will be explained.

In Brittany and Normandy and all through the country in England the children are most respectful, the boys never fail to touch their caps or the girls and the girls to curtsev when a stranger or acquaintance passes them or speaks to them. If the children of the French peasants and England's country folk have good manners, why not Canada's child-

Operation For Piles Failed.

Zam-Buk Was Then Tried and Worked a Cure.

Writing from Poplar, B.C., Mrs. C. Hanson, wife of the proprietor of the Commercial Hotel, says: "I suffered for years with bleeding piles. The pain was so bad at times that I could hardly walk, and ordinary remedies seemed utterly unable to give me any ease. Finally I decided to undergo an operation and and ordinary remedies seemed utterly unable to give me any ease. Finally I decided to undergo an operation, and went to the Sacred Heart Hospital in Spokane. There they performed an operation and did all they could for me. For a time I was certainly better, but within twelve months the trouble started again and the piles became as painful as ever. I tried liniments, hot poultices, various 'pile cures,' and indeed everything I could think would be likely to do any good, but still I continued to suffer, and the shooting, burning, stinging pains, the dull,: aching and wretched, 'worn-out' feeling that the disease causes continued as bad as ever.

"One day I read about Zam-Buk and thought I would try it. The first one or two boxes gave me more ease than anything else I had tried, so I went on with the treatment In a short time I began to feel altogether different and better, and I saw that Zam-Buk was going to cure me. Well, I went on using it, and by the time I had used six boxes I was delighted to find myself entirely cured. That was three years ago, and from then to the present time there has been no

That was three years ago, and from then to the present time there has been no return of the trouble."

Zam-Buk is a sure cure for piles, eczema, ulcers, abcesses, cold sores, chappeu nands, varicose sores, burns, scalds, bruises, inflamed patches, and all skin injuries and diseases. Druggists and stores everywhere, 50c. box, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Refuse harmful substitutes.

A Bountiful Harvest.

"As a man soweth, so shall he reap;" and youth is the time in which he must do his sowing if the granary is not to be empty when old age overtakes him, as it surely will if he lives long enough. The making of money and the saving of money, as distinguished from the miserly love of money, should be the ambition of everyone, but it does not necessarily follow that if you make money you will have it in your old age, as many a one-time millionaire has died in the poor-house. But if you take advantage of the Canadian Government Annuities system, and out of your wages, salary or income pay the amount fixed to be paid each week, month or year, or as otherwise arranged, provision for old age may be made with absolute certainty and at much less cost than on any other safe plan. You may lose everything else you own but the Annuity can not be lost or taken from you by any process of law, no matter how long you live. Ask your Postmaster for literature on the subject, or write for the same to the Superintendent of Annuities, Ottawa, to whom all let-ters may be addressed free of post-
