

LOCAL AND SPECIAL

The Parish Sewing Circle will be held Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 at the residence of Mrs. Charles DeWitt.

Charles DeWitt's mare "Tarnie Queen" lowered the Maritime province record to 2.11 on the Halifax track last Wednesday.

The Dominion exhibition closed last Friday with a record breaking attendance, aggregating 142,766. A surplus is anticipated.

Thomas Foster broke a rib while falling from a chair one day last week. He was putting a blind up when the chair slipped and he fell.

W. W. Chesley's store is in the hands of carpenters receiving a thorough overhauling. A steel ceiling has been put in and new floors laid.

J. R. DeWitt's "Meadowdale" has won $1020 since being put on the track in July. This is a good sum for a "green" horse. His record is 2.20.

The marriage of Helen Maude daughter of James Hillis, of Halifax, took place in St. Mark's church, in this city this morning at 10.30 o'clock.

For Yarmouth exhibition the Dominion Atlantic Railway will issue excursion tickets at one way first class fares on Oct. 9th, 10th and 11th, good to return October 13th.

After Saturday 13th October, "Flying Bluebird" trains will run on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and Saturday only up to and including 20th October, after which date they will be withdrawn for the season.

Julia, the year and a half old child of Harry Everett, fell from a chair one evening last week, and broke her right arm just above the wrist. Dr. Barnaby was called and dressed the injury.

Mrs. Albert Walker and family, Upper Granville, desire through the columns of the Monitor to thank all those who so kindly sent flowers and otherwise showed sympathy to them in their recent sad bereavement.

A Grand Manan schooner was here last week on a trading trip. The skipper Mr. Denton, is seriously considering going into the fish business here, opening a fresh fish market and a smoke-house for the curing of fish haddies, etc.

The schooner "Onyx" arrived last week from New York with 225 tons of hardware. After discharging she loaded lumber and sailed Monday evening. She only went down the river a short distance, however, before she was "hung up" until the next tide.

Miller and Elliott have so far this season shipped over a thousand barrels of apples including one car which went to Sydney last Saturday. London advices are quoting Ribbons and Kings at 82. Gravestones are now practically at the market.

The high wind of Sunday did great damage to the orchards all through the valley, thousands of barrels of fruit having been blown off. It is said to have been one of the most destructive in years. Several large growers who have talked with the Monitor say that they have had from 90 to 140 barrels on the ground.

N. R. Neely is building a large addition to the St. James hotel to accommodate his increasing patronage. The new L which will face on Queen street will be 47 by 30 feet, three stories high, and contain twenty rooms and a bath. This will give the hotel a total frontage of 107 feet. J. H. Hicks & Sons are doing the work, which will be finished this fall.

L. D. Shaffner's two new schooners will be launched this month, one the Montrose, at Shelburne on the 20th, and the other, the Annie M. Goudy, at Hantsport on the 21st. Both are ten schooners, the former of 200 tons and the latter, 175. The dimensions of the Montrose are: Length of keel, 100 feet; beam 28 1/2 feet; depth 10 feet. Of the Goudy: Length of keel, 90 feet; beam, 27 1/2 feet; hold, 9 feet. Both are intended for the southern trade.

A young fellow from across the river is qualifying for the penitentiary. He went into Henry Mamy's store last Thursday and purchased a watch for $5, paying for it with a bill folded in such a way as to show the "5" rather prominently. Mr. Mamy took the bill without further examination and the youth walked out. A little later Mr. Mamy opened the bill and found it to be a United States of Columbia bill for "Cinco Pesos," practically worthless in this country. Even at face value it would be but $3.75. He kept a lookout and when the purchaser of the watch passed the store clamped on him and made him disgorge.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mr. Editor:—Will you allow me, through the columns of your paper, to extend to my many friends my heartfelt thanks for their great kindness during the illness and burial of my late wife, who passed away the better land on September 30th. S. B. PENNELL, Lawrenceville, Oct. 5th, 1906.

The usual Friday evening service in St. James church will not be held this week.

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be dispensed in the Presbyterian Church next Sunday. It is owing to the celebration of the 100th anniversary of the birth of Young vs. Young had to be postponed until the June Court. The immediate response of Dr. Peters, of Annapolis, averted a more serious outcome.

Chas. Saunders, of Clarence, lost a valuable four-year-old colt yesterday. It got out of the pasture and strayed to the D. A. R. track opposite Harry Mamy's farm, where the well-known express struck it, cutting both hind legs off just below the hams. The D. A. R. fences are all down in that district.

HYMENEAL.

WALKER—KING.—A very pretty wedding took place on Sunday morning, October 6th at the residence of Captain Walker, Clements, port, when his daughter, Lottie Edna, was united in marriage to J. Royal King, of Shubert, Newbraska. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Douglas Hemmison, of Annapolis. The bride was decorated for the occasion with autumn leaves and cut flowers. The bride owing to the absence of her father was given away by her uncle Henry Wright, of Bear River, she was becomingly attired in white silk wearing the customary veil and carried a bouquet of white sweet-peas and maiden hair fern. After refreshments were served the guests dispersed with best wishes for the happy couple. The bride was the recipient of many nice presents. Mr. and Mrs. King leave for Nebraska Monday where they will reside.

BOWLEY—STIGULE.

The home of Daniel Sprone, Clements port was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, September 26, when his daughter, Laura May, was united in marriage to Ross G. Bowley, of Upper Clements.

The bride, who was attended by Miss Lottie E. Harlowe, looked charming in a gown of white silk with embroidered chiffon trimmings. She wore the customary veil and carried a bouquet of white asters and maiden hair fern.

The bridesmaid's dress was of cream ecru with lace and silk trimmings. She carried a bouquet of purple asters. The groom was attended by James Sprone, brother of the bride, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Balcom, of Paradise.

Refreshments were served to the guests after the ceremony. After partaking of the refreshments Mr. and Mrs. Bowley left for a drive to the South Shore. The brides travelling dress was of royal blue satin cloth with a blue hat trimmed with blue silk and white wings. Mr. and Mrs. Bowley received many handsome and useful presents, including a silver tea service and several other pieces of silver. The groom's present to the bridesmaid was a gold ring set with opals. Mr. and Mrs. Bowley will be at home in Upper Clements to their friends after October 8.

ARMSTRONG—SMITH.

On Thursday, September 27th, a very pretty and interesting ceremony was performed at the Methodist parsonage, Emerson, Man., when Miss Rebecca S. Smith, formerly of North Kingston, became the wife of James Armstrong, also a Nova Scotian, formerly of Granville, now a citizen of Bournemouth, N. D.

The wedding was rather unique from the fact that bride, groom, officiating clergyman and a large portion of the guests were Nova Scotians who had exchanged the "rolling ocean" for the "rolling prairie."

During the last few months Miss Smith had made her home with her cousin Rev. R. T. Armstrong, formerly of Nova Scotia, now pastor of the Emerson Methodist church, at whose home the marriage took place. The house was artistically decorated with asters and other autumn flowers, and a few immediate friends witnessed the ceremony. At five o'clock, P. M., while Mrs. Hamilton, at the organ, rendered the wedding march from Lohengrin, the bride entered on the arm of Chas. Whitman, formerly of Annapolis. She was unattended and wore a most becoming travelling gown of heavy broad cloth with white silk bodice. She carried a large bouquet of white chrysanthemums. The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. O. Armstrong, after which the assembled company sat down in groups to an elaborate and hearty repast.

Mayor of Hamilton in pronouncing the health of the bride spoke of her never failing helpfulness in the community. Chas. Whitman in a few well chosen words referred to his acquaintance with the father of the groom in the good old county of Annapolis (the late Whitman Armstrong). "Our host and hostess" called forth a most hearty and earnest tribute to their worth and their work. Both of them are most thoroughly appreciated in their own home. Mrs. Armstrong was the recipient of many valuable presents—that of the groom being a gold watch chain. At seven o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Armstrong took the train amid showers of rice, for their home in Bournemouth, N. D., followed by all good wishes from Emerson friends.
