Which of These Pictures Best Represents Your Stable?

If your stable interior is of wood, you'll do well to tear down those old, unsightly stalls and mangers—and build new ones of concrete.

In fact, the entire stable—inside and out—should be built of concrete.

This is the modern material—it has the merits of strength, endurance, and economy—and is sanitary.

The farmer himself can, by its use, make many little improvements that, with other material, would require the employment of skilled labor.

If you would know something of the possibilities of concrete, fill out the coupon and send it to us. By return mail, we will send you a copy of our free 160-page book, "What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete."

In this book you'll find complete instructions for the construction of almost everything you can think of, in the way of farm buildings, floors, vats, troughs, etc., etc.

Nowadays, for a farmer not to know how to mix and use concrete, is to confess himself away behind the times.

"What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete" will not only inform you—it will also interest you.

"What the Farmer Can Do With Concrete"

Tells you how to use concrete in constructing:

- Barns, Cisterns, Dairies, Dipping Tanks, Foundations, Fence Posts, Feeding Floors, Gutters, Horse Nests, Hitching Posts, Horse Blocks, Houses, Poultry Houses, Root Cellars, Silos, Shelter Walls, Stables, Stairs, Stalls, Steps, Tanks, Troughs, Walks, Well Curbs, Etc., etc., etc.

YARMOUTH NOW HAS BOOSTER CLUB.

Young Men Form Organization to Boom the Town.

Yarmouth, Mar. 1.—That the young men of Yarmouth are awake and alive to the possibilities of their town was evident by the enthusiasm that prevailed last evening when about thirty of them gathered in the rooms of J. A. Watson to form a "Booster" Club. The name decided on was: "Yarmouth Young Men's Booster Club." The motto is "No Politics—Just Yarmouth." Frank S. Rogers was elected president, C. Curtis McKay, secretary, and A. J. Wilson, treasurer.

A committee was appointed to frame by laws, which will be passed at the next meeting. A committee was also appointed to co-operate with a committee of the Board of Trade in their endeavor to secure an up-to-date Union Station here, as well as their railway improvements.

The primary object of this organization is to create a spirit of optimism to offset the pessimism that is and has been for many years, so noticeable in Yarmouth. Some of the central ideas that will be boosted will be: "Made in Yarmouth," "The "Grown in Yarmouth," and the "Living in Yarmouth." The watchword is "200,000 in 1920." So just watch Yarmouth grow.
