

pious and promising, at the Foreign Mission School, in Connecticut.

"From our Missionary at this station, we learn that the Indians had recently manifested more than ordinary solicitude for the general improvement of their village and their nation. Among other efforts for this object, they are preparing to erect a new Council-House and Church, of larger dimensions, and of more convenient structure, than the one they now occupy. They have already furnished all the timber and boards required for the building; and they hope to finish it early in the ensuing summer.

"A school for the children of the tribe has been taught for several years by the Missionary and his wife. As an additional Teacher, the Board have lately appointed Miss Elizabeth L. Brown, of Homer, in the county of Courtland. She will probably commence her labours in the course of the present month; and it will be her particular duty to instruct the young females of the nation in the arts of sewing, knitting, spinning and weaving."

In relation to the Seneca station, the same report remarks:

"The property of the Board in the Seneca village, consists of two dwelling houses and a school house, together with the use, for an indefinite period, of the ground on which they are erected. It is in contemplation to build an addition to the house now occupied by Mr. Young, for the purpose of accommodating the minister, and of embodying many of the Indian children in the Missionary family. It is also in contemplation to erect a workshop within an enclosure, of sufficient extent for the deposit of boards and timber; to furnish the necessary tools; and to give to the na-
