NEW YORK EXCHANGE.

STRONG LONDON OPENINGS FOLLOWED BY SOME REACTION — BANK CLEARANCES FOR THE WEEK COMPARED — A. S. W. DIRECTORS ENDORSE MR. GATES' BUNCO GAME — STEEL STOCKS MAY SELL OFF IN CONSEQUENCE.

New York, April 21.

London cables report a strong opening in that market for Americans, subsequently reacting, until prices are at about our parity. The tone is firm.

Dun's statement of bank clearances for the week shows a loss of 13.6 p.c. as compared with last year, but a gain of 57.9 over 1898.

Bradstreets in its review of the trade situation, says that trade continues good all over the country, a single exception being Chicago, where the local labor troubles are affecting business.

The export demand for iron and steel is still a feature. Trading yesterday was checked to a considerable extent awaiting the report of the A.S.W. directors' meeting the whitewash brush was used generously and Mr. Gates will still control the company's affairs, and likewise probably the market prices for its securities.

So far as we can learn, the only overproduction in the iron and steel trade is with the A.S.W. Co. The action of the A. S. W. board of directors will probably be disappointment to the Street, which had looked for some radical action on their part.

We shall not be surprised if the Steel stocks sell off in consequence of that meeting.
