with the colonies and dependencies it may be well to bear in mind that the may be went to bear in mind that the item of liquors alone accounts for $1, 17.863 of our commercial expansion. While we have, no doubt, exported a considerable number of Bibles as a considerable number of Bibles as agents or side in the work of benovolent assimilation," we have not neglected to supply our now wards with elenty of bor and whiskey." The facility of the United States flag for carrying with it into its colonial possessions the Bible and rum reminds us of the far-farned carrying power of the British flag in a similar capacity.

A bright contemporary very truly observes, " the Terente Globe grows very candid at times, and then it grows very candid at times, and then it grows really sensible in its utterance. It is edited by brainy men who know when a game is up, and so it has quit claiming all the political virtues for its friends, and charging its opponents with all the political orimes. Corruption it said in a recent issue was not the monopoly of either party. That was a frank admission, but it did not come until the courts made it quite unnecessary. courts made it quite unnecessary. However, the Globe is to be congratulated even on accepting the finding of the judges. Some political editors on both sides refuse even that evidence, or rather, the proof of the guilt of their

Its recent artical on "An Attempted Revival" shows considerable acumen in negatively weighing motives and intentions, and eminent fairness to wards its Catholic contemporaries.

A New Separate School Inspector Appointed.

Mr. Michael O'Brion, Commercial Master in the Peterborough Collegiate Institute. has been appointed by the Ontario Government, Inspector of Separate Schools for the Province of Ontario Government, Inspector of Separate Schools for the Province of Ontario Government, Inspector of Separate Schools for the Province of Ontario The appointment is to be regarded as an excellent one, and a subject of two-fold congratuation—to the very important educational interests concerned—that an inspector so well fitted to promote them has been chosen, and to Mr. O'Brien, that his special qualifications for the position have been practically recognized. He is well qualifications for the position for several reasons. His meat prominent qualification lies in the fact that he has had twenty four years successful experience in the practical work of teaching, and in all grades. He has study five years in the Public Schools; for eleven years in the Schools of Lindsay and Peterborough; and the last self-th years of his work have been most acceptable and efficient and extended to admirably fit him in this respect for the cappraising the value of another (exception) and physique and physique and physique and physique and physique and physique and history. Mr. OBrien is an under grade of randing his physique and physique and history for the physique and physique and history for the physique and physique and history for the ficients and saiisfactory discharge of the duties of the zegonship position to which he has been applicable.
