Stock Exchange Notes—The negotiations for the purchase of the Postal Telegraph Co. by the Commercial Cable Co., fore-shadowed in our last number, have been concluded. It is understood that the Commercial Cable Co. will issue about $15,000,000 4% Debenture stocks in the London market, and will pay out the Postal shareholders. The quotations for these stocks advanced slightly, and are now quiet.

Gas shows much strength and it is reported in the street that there is a large short interest at lower prices. Money is unusually cheap in New York, but is rather firm in London, the Bank of England maintaining its rate at 4% although the open market is 3%. The holiday dullness is coming in, but the year closes with a decided lull sentiment in the street.
