

of this country, and a man of striking force of character. He had a hatred of cant and pretence. His far-seeing powers, his unswerving integrity and great executive ability qualified him in an extraordinary degree for his responsibilities. At all prominent medical meetings his activities were conspicuous. His commanding presence and lofty sense of duty will always be remembered by those who had the privilege to be acquainted with him, and his pupils in all parts of the country will pay many tributes to his memory. He died Dec. 10th, 1906.—Alienist and Neurologist.

---

WILLIAM LANE, M.D.

---

Dr. Lane, a graduate of Victoria University of 1861, who practiced in St. Catharines for some years, then in Lockport for a time, and finally in New York for a few months, died in the latter city, March 14th. Heart failure was said to be the cause of death.

---

SAMUEL PRESCOTT RICHARDSON, M.D.

---

Dr. Richardson, a graduate from Toronto and Victoria Universities in 1871, and a practicing physician in Eglinton for about thirty-five years, died at his late residence, March 26th, aged 65. We are told that he had an attack of typhoid pneumonia early in the winter. He appeared to be on the road to recovery for a time, but took a turn for the worse early in March and failed somewhat rapidly till death came.

---

Mary Matheson Skirving, wife of Dr. James H. Richardson, 36 St. Joseph Street, Toronto, died March 16th, aged 82.