

1908 ANNUALS

Price Rigidly Maintained Throughout Canada

The Boy's Own Annual

There is no better trade proposition on the market at Christmas time than this famous old Annual, which possesses just as great a charm for the youngsters of 1908 as it did for those of 1898. The trade will make no mistake in stocking strong on the Boys' Own and featuring it prominently.

The Girl's Own Annual

Just as good a proposition as the Boys' Own with a big field of its own. It appeals to girls of all ages. It has a splendid collection of fiction by the best writers of the day, besides hundreds of other useful articles on all kinds of subjects. It is elaborately illustrated and contains twelve beautiful plates in color.

IMPORTANT NOTE

The prices on both these Annuals are rigidly maintained throughout Canada by signed agreements. This protection makes the sale of the books particularly attractive.

Warwick Bros. & Rutter, Limited
Publishers for Canada, Toronto