

95th Annual Mountain Fair

attracts 5,000 visitors

South Mountain Fair's Holstein show was a resounding success this year with 102 cows shown by 23 exhibitors from the area.

Both Premier Breeder and Premier Exhibitor awards were picked up by Fawcettale Farm.

Adamdale Sheik Mae, owned by Adamdale Holsteins, Brinston, was the winner of the Grand Champion female award at Dundas County's Holstein show

Jennifer Addison 5, won a hat and ribbon for her participation in the Jersey novice class.

Down the home stretch

The barrel-racing competition was one of the highlights of the South Mountain Fair's western horse show.

Rose family Ayrshires

Everything was coming up Ayrshires for the Rose family at the annual South Mountain Fair Ayrshire Show as the Roses swept through the show with 10 red ribbons to their credit, plus the show's Grand Champion, Junior Grand Champion, best udder award and a win in the breeder's herd class.

Proud pets and owners.

Vintage cars on display.

the red ribbon for Supreme Champion in the sheep division went to a Dorset ewe shown by Shirley Graves of Century Lane Farm.

Winchester Press Wed., Aug. 19, 1987

The Weekly Advance, Wednesday, August 24, 1988