

President's Office.

November 3, 1930

My dear Sir Arthur:

I am sure that you will miss H. M. MacKay very much, and I only hope that you will be able to get a suitable successor.

You kindly ask after myself. My physician reports that I am doing favourably, and he hopes that by going steadily but quietly I may pull through the session without damaging myself. We are expecting to be away in the West Indies enjoying the sunshine during the months of February and March.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,
