Sir Arthur Currie,

Principal Mc Gill College. Montreal.

Dear Sir,

Was deeply interested in reading in yesterday's issue of the "Daily Star", the recommendations of the Church property Commission in several cases, but was more particularly interested in our own case at Howick. It amazed me to read your recommendation that we accept the offer of the continuing Presbyterians, of the use of Knox Church, Howick, for a period of two years, for the morning service only, by paying a pro rata share of the running expenses. As you must know, Knox Church is a branch of Riverfield, and serves a few families and adherents who live in this Village, and who don't want to go the 3 Miles to Riverfield. We are only 1 Mile from Georgetown, and if these families wished to remain Presbyterian, they could sever their connection with Riverfield, and go there, over a first class Macadam road. Of course they would think it a great sacrifice, but not to be compared with the sacrifice
