

the salt water, it affords to the sportsman exciting play for considerable time before it permits itself to be taken.

Care will have to be observed that this valuable fish is not exterminated in this lake. As railways render the locality more accessible, the beautiful scenery must attract tourists and sportsmen in increasing numbers and lead to extinction of the fish unless the lake continues to be periodically restocked with the fry, and fishing is permitted under stringent regulations which are not only made but are also properly enforced.
