

“I believe in my heart that if this love
“shall make all men take knowledge of us
“that we had been with Jesus, and compel
“them to say, ‘See how these Churchmen
“love one another,’ we may, in God’s “hands, be His instruments to heal these “divisions which have rent the seamless “robe of Christ. And when I plead for “love, I plead for love for all who love “Jesus Christ. Shall we not claim as our “own kinsmen, Carey, the English cobler,
“who went as the first missionary to India;
“and translated for them the Bible;
“Morrison, the first missionary to China;
“David Livingstone, the Scotch peace
“weaver, who died for Christ in Africa;
“the Moravians who offered to be sold as “slaves if the King of Denmark would “only let them go and tell the poor black “slaves in the West Indies of the love of “Jesus Christ? We may and will, in love, “witness for the blessed truths we have “received from the Primitive Church, but “we can never forget that there will not be “one in that white-robed throng who shall “sing the praises of the Redeemer who is “not our kinsman in Jesus Christ.”
