

Contents

xi

PAGE

Hunting Country—Game of the Mountains and Plains—Successful Hunting—Mr. Crooks and a Grizzly Bear—The Wigwam—Bighorn and Blacktails—Beef and Venison—Good Quarters and Good Cheer—An Alarm—An Intrusion—Unwelcome Guests—Desolation of the Larder—Gormandizing Exploits of Hungry Savages—Good Quarters Abandoned. 225

CHAP. XX. — Rough Wintry Travelling—Hills and Plains—Snow and Ice—Disappearance of Game—A Vast Dreary Plain—A Second Halt for the Winter—Another Wigwam—New-Year's Feast—Buffalo Humps, Tongues, and Marrow Bones—Return of Spring—Launch of Canoes—Bad Navigation—Pedestrian March—Vast Prairies—Deserted Camps—Pawnee Squaws—An Otto Indian—News of War—Voyage Down the Platte and the Missouri—Reception at Fort Osage—Arrival at St. Louis . . . . . 238

CHAP. XXI.—Agreement Between Mr. Astor and the Russian Fur Company—War Between the United States and Great Britain—Instructions to Captain Sowle of the Beaver—Fitting out of the Lark—News of the Arrival of Mr. Stuart . . . . . 250

CHAP. XXII.—Banks of the Wallah-Wallah—Departure of David Stuart for the Oakinagan—Mr. Clarke's Route up Lewis River—Chipunnish, or Pierced-nose Indians—Their Character, Appearance, and Habits—Thievish