

	PAGE.
Up.—Cutting Out.—Branding.—More than the Calf-Skin would hold.
—Throwing the Lasso.—No Enterprise about a Cow.—Ear-Marks.—
The Doctor Rounded Up . . . . .	149

CHAPTER XIII.

Extent of Texas Cattle Business.—Annual Exports.—Mode of Raising Cattle.—A Cattle-King.—A Gorgeous Wedding-Present.—John Timon of San Patricio.—The Cowboy.—The Texas Cattle-Drive.—Two Ounces of Truth to the Ton.—Sam Grant, Captain of the Drive.—The best Stock-Range on Earth.—Sam Grant's Story.—On the Cattle-Trail.—Indians.—Frontier Dick.—The Whiskey all gone.—Sorry he did not skin the Savages . . . . .	163
---	-----

CHAPTER XIV.

The Seedy-Looking Man.—The Real-Estate Agent.—Elastic Tales.—The Immigration Agent.—Eloquent Mendacity.—The Old Veteran.—Extraordinary Mortuary Statistics.—Battle-Scarred Heroes.—Frontier Eloquence.—Shaking him off.—A Drug in the Market.—Health Legend.—A Shadow of Antiquity.—Don Jose Ignacio Fuerte Vez.—Suffering for a Funeral.—Back from the Valley of the Shadow.—Was it the Padre, or the Devil? . . . . .	178
---	-----

CHAPTER XV.

We went Fishing.—The Profane General.—A Mexican Panther.—"Dat ar Painter Nine Feet High."—A Joke on the General.—Death of Mose Patterson's Work-Ox.—English Immigrants.—Letters to the Times.—A Briton's Grievance.—Powerful Imagination.—Rainfall in Texas.—New Philadelphia.—Raising a Disturbance with a Plough.—"A Blawsted Country."—Advice to Immigrants.—Riding in a Circle.—He "Got Hungry."—Interviewing an Immigrant.—The English Yeoman.—"Ich Verstehe Sie Nicht."—The Man in Lynn, Mass.—The Doctor tampers with the Immigrant Business.—The Texas Navy . . . . .	191
---	-----

CHAPTER XVI.

Some Scraps of History.—A.D. 1582.—Slow in Settling Up.—Missions of St. Francis of Assisi.—The Monk and the Soldier.—Indios Reducidos.—Converting Indians with a Thumb-screw.—The Backsliding Indian Che-qua-que-ho.—The Spanish Plan of Salvation.—Religious Zeal and Enterprise.—A.D. 1690-1715.—Founding of Missions in Texas.—Robert Cavalier de La Salle.—The French Colony.—Our Lady of Guadalupe.—A.D. 1800.—Scientific Explorations.—Philip Nolan.—An Empresario.—Flush Times.—He didn't have the Boots.—Yearling Bulls the Circulating-Medium.—Ancient Spanish Document.—The Marquis de Casa Fuerte . . . . .	206
--	-----