

SECTION VII.

LESSONS ON PERSPECTIVE.

	PAGE		PAGE
Lesson 1: On general Matters to be attended to in practical Perspective . . .	89	Lesson 6: On the proper Mode of representing Widths of Range	96
Lesson 2: On the particular Effects of Perspective in Nature to be imitated . . .	90	Lesson 7: On how to proceed without Vanishing Points, etc.	98
Lesson 3: On the Requirements of a Perspective Plan or Drawing	92	Lesson 8: On preparing a ground Plan to be put into Perspective	101
Lesson 4: On the definite Principles which should govern the Formation of a Perspective Drawing	93	Lesson 9: On Making a Perspective Drawing from a prepared ground Plan	103
Lesson 5: On the Formation of a Perspective Drawing	95	Lesson 10: On how to proceed in certain Cases	106
		Lesson 11: On general Matters, Bird's-Eye Perspective, &c.	109

SECTION VIII.

	PAGE		PAGE
On Sketching from Nature	113	How to obtain the correct Length of Lines, etc.	116
What to sketch	113	How much of a Subject should be sketched	116
How to proceed and how to hold the Sketch-Book	114	On Sketching the Human Figure, &c. . . .	118
On the Determinative Point	115		