

	PAGE		PAGE
iii. Teachers and their preparation.....	205	vi. Store and Book Depository of the London Board.....	268
iv. Course of Study in Elementary Schools.....	206	vii. Depository for School Appliances in Paris.....	272
v. Inspection and Supervision of Schools.....	207	viii. Pedagogical Museum at Washington.....	273
vi. Secondary Education.....	209	ix. Depot for Books, Maps, &c., in the Province of Quebec.....	274
vii. Industrial Schools.....	210	x. Local School Exhibitions, or Museums, Quebec.....	276
viii. Higher Technical Education.....	214	xi. Proposed Imperial Museum for India and the Colonies.....	277
ix. Comparison of the condition of Primary Education in various countries.....	216
PART XVI—AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL LESSONS FROM THE CENTENNIAL.....	216	C.—International Exchange of School Material:
i. By the Hon. G. B. Northrop, Connecticut.....	217	i. United States Government.....	281
ii. By the Hon. J. P. Wickersham, Pennsylvania.....	220	ii. Education Department, Japan.....	284
iii. By the Hon. T. B. Stockwell, Rhode Island.....	221	iii. Museum of Tokio.....	288
iv. By the Hon. S. H. White, Illinois.....	223	iv. Articles despatched to Australia:
PART XVII LESSONS FOR CANADIANS, chiefly Educational, derived from the International Exhibition, by J. G. H.....	226	(1) Victoria.....	289
		(2) New South Wales.....	289
		(3) Public Library, Melbourne.....	290
APPENDICES.		D.—Official Correspondence in regard to the International Exhibition.....	290
A.—(1) The Educational Influence of International Exhibitions, by Professor Archer, British Commissioner.....	249	1. From the Chief Superintendent of Education to the Hon. the Provincial Treasurer.....	290
(2) Lessons derived from the Paris Exposition, 1867, by Hon. G. B. Northrop.....	253	2. Reply to the foregoing, by the Hon. the Treasurer.....	291
B.—Pedagogical Museums and Depositories:		3. From the Deputy Superintendent to the Hon. the Treasurer.....	291
i. In England, Canada, and Russia, by Hon. J. P. Wickersham, U.S.D.....	254	4. Circular from the Chief Superintendent to Boards of School Trustees and Inspectors (with enclosures).....	292
ii. Pedagogical Museum in Russia, by the Hon. B. G. Northrop, U.S.D.....	256	5. From the Deputy Minister to the Canadian Commissioners, Philadelphia.....	297
iii. Official Account of the Russian Pedagogical Museum.....	257	6. From the Deputy Minister to the Secretary to the Canadian Commissioners.....	298
iv. Sketch of the South Kensington Museum, by P. Cunliffe Owen, Esq., British Commissioner.....	264	7. Reply to the foregoing by the Secretary.....	298
v. Pennsylvania Museum of Industrial Art.....	267	8. Report by the Deputy Minister to the five Judges on Collective Exhibits, Philadelphia.....	298
		9. Award of these Judges.....	302

N. B.—For fuller particulars, see Index.