

superior in romance of
est." The St.
Democrat
is nothing
than Mr.

bringing out the life in the for-
Louis Globe-
writes: "There
finer in literature Roberts's picture of the Northern woods on a moonlit winter night." The Philadelphia Press said:
"Professor Roberts has rarely done better literary work. Some of his verse may excel it, but only that." The New York Evening Post: "It is a masterpiece of its kind." The Chicago Tribune: "No more perfect achievement of its kind has come from the hand of man," and the Brooklyn Eagle credits it with being "incomparably the best in literature that has grown up about animals."

