

A Few Reasons

Why the Government of Canada should push on with the immediate construction of those portions of the Trent Valley Route still necessary to the completion of a continuous line of Barge Navigation extending from tide-water at Montreal, through the St. Lawrence and Bay of Quinte to Trenton, thence through the chain of lakes and rivers lying between Trenton and the Georgian Bay at Midland and thence along the Eastern shores of the Georgian Bay as far as Sault St. Marie.