

crossings, switches and signals, and is thoroughly equipped in all respects, with elegant coaches having every appliance for comfort and safety; its locomotives are of the best and most powerful pattern; its engineers, conductors and train-men intelligent and efficient men, who have grown up with the road; while the management is both progressive and careful; all of which accounts for the SIGNIFICANT FACT that on "the old Boston and Lowell road" NO PASSENGER HAS EVER BEEN FATALLY INJURED WHILE INSIDE ITS CARS.

BOSTON STATION.

It is the aim of the management to have this continue true in the future, while they shall also continue to supply close connections and quick transit to all points to be reached by its system of roads.
