Roosevelt Was Shot By Lunatic at Milwaukee

With Bullet Lodged in Right Breast, Roosevelt Made Hour's Address and Was Then Rushed to Hospital

Hold-up Man Robs Three Liquor Stores | Mayor Geary is Corporation Counsel

THREE LIQUOR STORES ROBBED BY HIGHWAYMAN, WHO FIRED AT POLICE AND THEN ESCAPED

More Than $200 Was Secured in Stores on Yonge, Gerrard and King Streets by Man Who Got Away on a Bicycle After Wounding a Clerk and Being Chased and Fired Upon by Police.

An armed highwayman last night held up three liquor stores, riddled the tills, shot point blank at two people who tried to interfere, and, with a posse of detectives in his wake, made good his escape. During his flight the robber was fired upon five times by a constable on Tecumseh street and the G. T. R. tracks, but was uninjured. The police lost track of him in the exhibition grounds on Dufferin street. From descriptions furnished the detectives, the bold marauder is thought to be a close relation of O. H. Latremouille, who is in jail on a charge of robbing three liquor stores last week. An arrest may be made at any time. In the three hold-ups the robber got close on to $250.

The stores were S. R. Dandy's, at 360 Gerrard street; J. H. Wallace, 608 Yonge street, and M. Wade, at the corner of King and Tecumseh streets.

ONE CLERK WAS SHOT.
 Charles Howard, a clerk at Wallace's store, had his cheek seared by a bullet when he refused to yield to the demands of the highwayman. Mrs. Wade and her niece also had a narrow escape from being shot.

The first place to be visited was Dandy's. Charles, brother of the proprietor, was standing behind the counter, when a man entered and purchased some whiskey. The customer asked permission to use the phone. Altho they generally refused at other times, Mr. Dandy consented on this occasion. The man got his connection and was carrying on a conversation in the little office behind the partition, when another man entered. He asked for a couple of bottles of Labatt's ale.

Mr. Dandy reached below the shelf, secured the bottles, and placed them on the counter.

UP WITH YOUR HANDS!
 "Up with your hands!" was the command. The clerk looked up, to find the customer covering him with a revolver. The robber then ordered Dandy to stand back. The latter did so, hoping to get into the little office and secure a loaded gun, kept there since the proprietor was held up last week in much the same manner as last night.

The hold-up man possessed this move at once, and with a wave of the revolver told Dandy to come nearer. Placing his left hand on the keys of the till, he attempted to open it. Falling in his purpose, he ordered the clerk to open the register for him. When this was done the hold-up man slowly gathered up the bills and stuffed them in his pockets.

While he was doing this the man who had been telephoning walked right by, showing not the least surprise. Nor did the robber molest him. The two glanced at each other, and the previous customer passed out to the street.

KNOW HIM NEXT TIME.
 "The next time you go down to identify a man, you'll know him," remarked the man with the gun to Dandy in a sarcastic way. Dandy identified O. H. Latremouille a few days ago as the man who held him up last week.

"Have you got any 'kayo' on you?" he asked. When the clerk replied that he had not, the robber sneeringly said that he (Dandy) was only a workman.

After pocketing about $11 the caller walked to the door.

"I MAY CALL AGAIN."
 "Good-night, my friend," smiled he. "I may call again." He described the Dandy rushed to the phone and called the police. He described the man who used the telephone as about 40 years old, black mustache, dark clothes and black hair.

The robber was about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches in height, clean shaven, with sharp features, and wore a brownish cap with a pepper and salt tuck. With in a few minutes after the crime had been committed Detectives Cronin, Miller and Armstrong were on the scene.

"Only that time," was the answer. Without a word the caller picked up the silver and bidding the two good-night, walked out.

Heard the Report
 Howard Carter, 87 Yarmouth road, was standing at the corner of Gloucester and Yonge streets. He heard the report of a revolver and was about to enter the store when a man came out and ran down Gloucester street to a lane behind the shop. A few seconds later a young fellow in his shirt sleeves rushed out, calling to Carter to stop the robber.

G. R. GEARY, K.C., who resigned his position as Mayor of Toronto, to accept the corporation counselship.

USING COAL OIL COST HER LIFE

Mrs. Chas. Gilliard of Newmarket Was Burned to Death While Cooking Dinner for Family.

NEWMARKET, Oct. 14.—(Special).—Mrs. Charles Gilliard was burned to death at her home on Timothy street here today, when she attempted to hurry the fire with coal oil. She was preparing dinner for her family, and as the fire was slow in burning up, she took the coal oil can and applied some of the oil to the wood in the stove. Immediately there was an explosion. The coal oil can, which Mrs. Gilliard held in her hand, was blown in two, and the oil spread over the woman's clothing. She at once attempted to reach the telephone to call her husband, who is employed by the Office Specialty Co., and on the way managed to throw off some of her clothing, which burned a hole in the floor. Being unable to stand the pain, Mrs. Gilliard ran into the kitchen, where she fell to the floor and died of the terrible burns. Her husband found her body when he went home to dinner. In addition to her husband, Mrs. Gilliard is survived by two daughters. The family came here from Rochester about two years ago.

Defeated at the regular Republican convention in June last, he was nominated to lead the Progressive, or Bull Moose, forces.

GEARY IS APPOINTED CORPORATION COUNSEL AFTER A LONG DEBATE AT SALARY OF $8000

By a Vote of 15 to 7 the Appointment Was Made, and by 15 to 6 the Bylaw Necessary to Appoint Him Was Passed—Resignation Will Be Accepted at Special Meeting Next Monday and in the Meantime the Mayor Will Wind Up His Business.

By a vote of 15 to 7 Mayor Geary was appointed corporation counsel, at a salary of $8000 per annum, by the city council early this morning. A motion, moved by Ald. McBride, was passed, offering the mayor the position, and when this secured the desired majority the bylaw was submitted and carried on all three readings, the division in this case being 15 to 6.

When the issue was settled a sub-committee composed of Ald. Dunn, Maguire and O'Neill waited upon his worship, who formally accepted the position, but requested that he be permitted to remain in his post for a few days until he had wound up the business which was then pressing.

A discussion arose about 1 o'clock this morning as to whether the mayor was now mayor or corporation counsel, in view of the fact that the bylaw appointing him to the new position was passed. It was agreed, however, to hold a special meeting next Monday, when the mayor's resignation will be accepted by the council. In the meantime he will act as mayor.

The division on the first motion to offer the mayor the position was as follows:

For—Ald. Dunn, O'Neill, Rawlinson, May, Spence, Cunderson, Rowland, Ryding, Robbins, McBrien, Weston, McBride, Graham, Controllers Foster and Church—15.

Against—Maguire, McMurrich, Anderson, Wanless, Austin, Controllers Hocken and McCarthy—7.

The council deferred action on most of the important matters in the board of control report for their meeting next Monday.

Colonel's Life Saved by Secretary Martin, Who Hurlled Himself From Automobile Upon His Assailant, John Schrank of New York—Roosevelt, Unaware He Was Wounded, Protected Man From Furious Crowd—Panic at the Auditorium Followed Announcement of Wounding, But Colonel, Declaring "I'll Make This Speech or Die," Spoke for an Hour—Schrank, Fanatically Opposed to Third Term Idea, Suffered From Delusion That He Was Ordained to Kill Roosevelt.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, OCT. 14.—(CAN. PRESS).—ROOSEVELT'S WOUND NOW REPORTED MORE SERIOUS THAN AT FIRST THOUGHT. REPORTS RECEIVED AT PROGRESSIVE HEADQUARTERS HERE STATE THAT THE BULLET PENETRATED THREE INCHES OF THE ABDOMINAL WALL AND THE WOUND IS MORE SERIOUS THAN AT FIRST THOUGHT. THIS WAS SHOWN BY THE X-RAY PHOTOGRAPH, WHICH HAS JUST BEEN DEVELOPED. COL. ROOSEVELT IS STILL AT THE STATION IN MILWAUKEE.

A SPECIAL TRAIN WILL LEAVE HERE IN A FEW MINUTES WITH FOUR SURGEONS. THEY ARE DRs. JOHN B. MURPHY, ARTHUR BEVAN, A. E. OCHSNER AND L. L. M'ARTHUR.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 14.—(Can. Press)—After Col. Roosevelt had spoken for an hour at the Auditorium, he was removed to the hospital. The operating room had been placed in readiness to receive Col. Roosevelt, and six of the leading surgeons of Milwaukee were awaiting his arrival.

Col. Roosevelt was undressed and placed upon the operating table, altho he insisted that he was not badly hurt, and that the doctors were taking it too seriously.

An examination of the wound showed that it had been made by a bullet of large size. It entered the fleshy part of the right breast, half way between the collar-bone and the lower rib. The physicians found that they knew no more after their examination than before as to the location of the bullet, and it was decided to send for an X-ray machine to determine to what depth the bullet had penetrated. While he was waiting for the X-ray machine, Col. Roosevelt sat up on the operating table and talked politics and joked with the physicians.

The X-ray of Col. Roosevelt's wound shows that the bullet lodged in the chest wall and did not penetrate the lung. The wound is not considered serious.

Col. Roosevelt left the hospital at 11.25 p.m. He was able to walk unassisted. "I am feeling fine," he said. The would-be assassin gives his name as John Schrank, and his address as 370 East Tenth street, New York.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 14.—(Can. Press)—Col. Theodore Roosevelt was shot and slightly wounded tonight as he was leaving the Gilpatrick Hotel for the Auditorium to make a speech. The wound was superficial, and the colonel went on to the hall and began his speech, after he had seen the assailant arrested and taken to the police station.

The man was seized and held until policemen came up. A mob surged around the prisoner, who apparently is mentally upset on the subject of Roosevelt's running for another term as president. The man, who is small of stature, admitted firing the shot, and said that "Any man looking for a third term ought to be shot."

In notes found in the man's pockets at the police station were statements that the man had been visited in a dream by the spirit of William McKinley, who said, indicating Roosevelt: "This is my murderer. Avenge my death!"

WAS UNAWARE OF WOUND.
 It is believed Roosevelt's injury is not serious. The colonel felt no pain at the time the shot was fired, and was not aware that he was shot until he was on the way to the Auditorium. His attention was then called to a hole in his overcoat, and he found that his shirt was soaked with blood. He insisted that he was not hurt badly. A superficial examination of the wound was made when he reached the Auditorium, and three physicians agreed that he was in no immediate danger.

Col. Roosevelt's life probably was saved by a manuscript of the speech which he delivered tonight. The bullet struck the manuscript, which retarded its force as it passed thru into the flesh.

SAVED BY SECRETARY.
 His assailant was prevented from firing a second shot by Albert H. Martin, one of Col. Roosevelt's two secretaries. Col. Roosevelt had just stepped into an automobile when the would-be assassin pushed his way thru the crowd in the street and fired. Martin, who was standing in the car with the colonel, leaped onto the man's shoulders and bore him to the ground.

Capt. A. O. Girard of Milwaukee, who was on the front seat, jumped almost at the same time, and in an instant the man was overpowered and disarmed.
