

99700
Near Sherburne and Carlton, Doctor's residence, 11 rooms, hot water heating, 30 foot lot, brick stable and coach house.
H. H. WILLIAMS & CO.
26 Victoria Street

TWENTY-SEVENTH YEAR

TWELVE PAGES—TUESDAY MORNING OCTOBER 30 1906—TWELVE PAGES

ONE CENT

TOTAL DEAD FIFTY-THREE ONLY TWO UNCLAIMED OF WRECK VICTIMS

Cause of Atlantic City Train Disaster Undetermined—General Manager of Pennsylvania Thinks Nothing Was Wrong With Rails of the Bridge.

Atlantic City, N.J., Oct. 29.—The total number of dead in the appalling wreck of an electric train, which on Sunday afternoon, loaded with passengers, plunged into the waterway separating this city from the mainland, now is placed at 53.

Of these 49 bodies have been identified, and two others remain unclaimed in the temporary mortuary.

The bodies of two persons known to have been drowned have not been recovered.

A special car containing the bodies of the Philadelphia victims left tonight for that city.

The day has been one of unceasing activity, of gruesome scenes and pathetic incidents. Wrecking crews with derricks succeeded in bringing one of the two submerged cars to the surface, and divers working in relays brought up bodies until their task was completed and they reported that no more dead remained either inside the second car or in the water and mud anywhere in the vicinity.

Interest now centres in the work of the coroner's jury, which to-day made a careful inspection of the scene of the wreck, and the drawbridge, at which the train left the rails. State Senator Edward S. Lee is foreman of the jury.

No More Than 53.

After the forward car of the two submerged coaches had been hoisted to the surface and the divers who had worked on the wreckage all day long had made a final examination of the second car without finding any more bodies, W. W. Atterbury, general manager of the Pennsylvania Railway, who, with several of his assistants, had been on the scene since Sunday night, expressed his belief that the total number of dead would not exceed 53.

"There is a bare possibility that one or two others may have been killed," he added. "I cannot believe that any of the unfortunates were carried out to sea by the shifting tides."

Mr. Atterbury said the cause of the accident was a mystery to him.

"I still believe," he declared, "that there was nothing wrong with the rails of the bridge. I am inclined to think that the cause will be ascertained when the first coach is examined."

Mr. Atterbury himself showed the jurors how the bridge is operated and explained in detail the manner of

Continued on Page 12.

NEW LEASE FOR CATARACT.

Contract for Lighting St. Kitts Extended for Few Months.

St. Catharines, Oct. 29.—(Special.)—The city council this afternoon passed a bylaw authorizing an agreement with the Lincoln Electric Light Power Company, which is controlled by the Cataract Power Company, to continue the contract for eighty arc lights at $72.50 per light, which expires Nov. 1.

The special committee on lighting will next week make a complete report concerning the new contract, which from present indications will not begin till May next.

TWO DIE IN JAIL FIRE.

Court Buildings at Chilliwack Fired by the Victims.

Victoria, B. C., Oct. 29.—(Special.)—The provincial police department is advised to-day of the burning of the court house and jail at Chilliwack and the death in the flames of Daniel McKenzie, proprietor of the Dominion Hotel, and K. C. Cousins.

The victims are believed to have started the fire. They were immured for drunkenness.

Accused Feds on Company Chartered Accountants, 5 King West. M. 790.

Office furniture and filing cabinets, best makes, reasonably priced. John Kay, Son Co. Limited, 96 and 98 King Street West.

Empress Hotel, Yonge and Gould Sts., E. Disette, Prop. $1.50 and $2.00 per day.

A Comfort and a Security.
The custom of bonding those who fill positions of trust is a recognized form of business procedure. It does not imply a lack of confidence in the person so bonded. It is as much a comfort to the person so bonded as it is a security to the bondholder. The London Guarantee and Accident Company is the oldest institution in Canada issuing fidelity bonds. Address: Canada Life Building. Phone Main 1842.

Edwards, Morgan & Company, Chartered Accountants, 2 Wellington St. East. Phone Main 1163.

Kay's vertical filing cabinet at $24.00 a wonderful value. 36 and 38 King Street West.

The morning World is delivered to any address in the city or suburbs before 7 a.m. for 25 cents a month. Phone Main 212 for complaints of unsatisfactory delivery.

Harris, Customs Broker, 6 Melindas.

If the Dalys were not the best, our business would not grow larger every year.

Smoke No. 7, very cool. Try it and you will have no other. Alvie Bolland.

IDENTIFIED DEAD.

Emmanuel Freed of New York, a vaudeville performer, known as "Manny" Bernard, nephew of Sam Bernard.
Mrs. Mary Benckhart, Philadelphia Clarence Benckhart, 12 years old, her son.
W. L. Carter, Philadelphia; Mrs. W. L. Carter, his wife.
James Paul Dempsey, Camden; Ida Dempsey, his wife.
Miss Cora Biddle Brown, Eastport, Me.
Mrs. Walter Brodigh, Eastport, Me.
Mrs. Selma Woonfort, Camden.
James Egan, Atlantic City.
Mrs. Laura Lawrence, Philadelphia.
Samuel Ifell, Germantown, Pa.; Rachel Ifell, his wife.
Walter Scott, Atlantic City.
Dr. Alvin C. Hudders, Roxborough, Pa.; Mrs. Alvin Hudders, his wife.
Dr. Paul Felsberg, Philadelphia; Mrs. Felsberg, his wife.
Frank Monroe, Atlantic City.
Eddie Niessa, 5 years old, Philadelphia.
Gertrude Hayes, colored, Camden.
Mrs. Evelyn McElroy, Philadelphia; Olive McElroy, 5 years old, her daughter.
John Zimmerman, Philadelphia.
E. Finkelsch, Reading, Pa.
Mrs. Ella Rittenhouse, 60 years old, Philadelphia; Ella Mary Rittenhouse, 19 years old, her daughter.
Albert L. Getman, Philadelphia.
Albert Kessel, Camden; Charles Kessel, his brother.
Mrs. W. H. Stewart, Wenonah, N. J.; William Stewart Klyne, small adopted son of Mrs. Stewart.
Mrs. Edna Hetsch, Philadelphia.
William Edwards, Woodbury, N. J.
Frank Merward, Philadelphia; Joseph Merward, his brother.
Constantine C. Yaorda, Philadelphia.
George Turner, colored, Atlantic City.
Thomas Culvence, Philadelphia.
Clifford Harris, 17 years old, colored, Philadelphia; Sinclair Harris, 15 years of age, his brother.
John Kober, Philadelphia.
Vicenzo Darcuble, Atlantic City.
Robert Brower, Philadelphia.
George Woner, Camden, N. J.
Mrs. Annie Miller, Philadelphia; Lester Miller, her son.
Sam Kleinberger, undertaker, this city.
Of the remaining bodies at the morgue one was partially identified as that of Arman Alexis Tadesco of New York, the fiance of Miss Hetsch, also one of the victims. One other body in an undertaking establishment is that of an old key peddler, whose name no one seems to know.
In addition to this, Joseph McElroy, 3 years of age, son of Mrs. Evelyn McElroy, is known to have been drowned, as is H. N. Burch of Camden, N. J.

DIRECTORS SHOULD KEEP CONSTANT DOUBLE CHECK

Should Not Delegate Authority to One Man, Nor Permit a General Manager Himself to Shoulder Whole Responsibility, Says Byron E. Walker—Government Inspection Valueless.

FOR A BANK'S SAFETY.

(1) No one man should be put in charge of a bank without check or inspection. He should not himself permit it, and the directors should not permit it.

(2) Every general manager and other important officer should have associated with him some men—or one man at least—to divide his responsibility, to aid him with advice, and capable, at a moment's notice, of taking his place, if necessary.

(3) While the directors cannot be expected to control the cash or attend to many details, they are responsible for the way in which and the persons to whom they delegate their authority. They should not abdicate their functions, but should keep in touch with the affairs of the institution. And their powers should not be turned over to any one man, responsible to nobody, but to an organization whose members should be men of undoubted character and ability and who will check one another. There should be a double check on every transaction.

The above guiding principles for the conduct of every bank were gleaned from Byron E. Walker, general manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, who has just returned from a six weeks' tour through the Canadian west.

Asked by The World last evening for an opinion on the situation created by the suspension of the Ontario Bank, Mr. Walker replied:

"I am unwilling to say anything at this time that might be construed into anticipating the facts that must in time be known to all. We have Mr. McGill's statement, as reported in the press, but that may be inaccurate. Mr. Cockburn and the directors have not stated their position, and I would not wish to be quoted as reflecting upon them in any way."

"But assuming Mr. McGill's statement to be correct?"

"As I understand it, McGill took

Continued on Page 5.

Province Gets Half Million From Gooderham Estate

A Cheque for $519,672 Received Yesterday by the Ontario Succession Dues Department—Valuation Was Raised.

The largest cheque ever received by the Ontario government for succession dues, and perhaps the largest ever received by the provincial treasury, except from other government sources, came into the possession of Hon. Col. Matheson yesterday.

It was for $519,672.43, and was in payment of the succession dues on the estate of the late George Gooderham.

The cheque was drawn on the Bank of Toronto and signed by W. G. Gooderham, as chairman of the trustees of the estate.

Mr. T. P. Galt conveyed the precious document to the parliament buildings yesterday afternoon.

The sum received by the province is percentage collected on a valuation placed on the estate of $10,400,000.

"This valuation is about a million dollars above that originally submitted," said Hon. Col. Matheson, "but then the estate is one which is hard to value."

"I think, however, that a reasonable settlement has been arrived at."

The dues received this month total $50,272, and this year to date $959,999.

IN HIDING WITH THE STOLEN GOODS

FAGIN HYMAN: "Caught Artful Dodger Lewis and the rest of the boys, have they? I'll just put out the light and lie low."

RESORT TO COMPULSION TO REINSTATE TENANTS

Irish Leader Alleges That Landlords Are Hindering Operations of Act by Refusing to Sell Untenanted Land.

London, Eng., Oct. 29.—John E. Redmond, the Irish leader, moved the adjournment of the house of commons to-day in order to call attention to the lack of progress in the matter of reinstating evicted tenants in Ireland, owing, as the speaker alleges, to the landlords' hindering the operations of the land act by refusing to sell untenanted lands. The land commissioners consequently were unable to provide farms for evicted tenants.

Mr. Redmond said it was obvious that the government must resort to some system of compulsion. The patience of the Irish people was becoming exhausted, and although the Irish party desired to give opportunity for a declaration of the government's intention regarding Irish self-government, he thought the chief secretary for Ireland, Mr. Bryce, ought to grapple with the matter vigorously.

Mr. Bryce, after some debate, said the government had done its best to cope with the grave obstacles before it and had won a certain measure of success. If the remedy is compulsion, the chief secretary said the government might have to come to that.

Mr. Redmond said it was obvious that the government must resort to some system of compulsion. The patience of the Irish people was becoming exhausted, and although the Irish party desired to give opportunity for a declaration of the government's intention regarding Irish self-government, he thought the chief secretary for Ireland, Mr. Bryce, ought to grapple with the matter vigorously.

Mr. Bryce, after some debate, said the government had done its best to cope with the grave obstacles before it and had won a certain measure of success. If the remedy is compulsion, the chief secretary said the government might have to come to that.

Mr. Redmond said it was obvious that the government must resort to some system of compulsion. The patience of the Irish people was becoming exhausted, and although the Irish party desired to give opportunity for a declaration of the government's intention regarding Irish self-government, he thought the chief secretary for Ireland, Mr. Bryce, ought to grapple with the matter vigorously.

Mr. Bryce, after some debate, said the government had done its best to cope with the grave obstacles before it and had won a certain measure of success. If the remedy is compulsion, the chief secretary said the government might have to come to that.

Mr. Redmond said it was obvious that the government must resort to some system of compulsion. The patience of the Irish people was becoming exhausted, and although the Irish party desired to give opportunity for a declaration of the government's intention regarding Irish self-government, he thought the chief secretary for Ireland, Mr. Bryce, ought to grapple with the matter vigorously.

Mr. Bryce, after some debate, said the government had done its best to cope with the grave obstacles before it and had won a certain measure of success. If the remedy is compulsion, the chief secretary said the government might have to come to that.

Mr. Redmond said it was obvious that the government must resort to some system of compulsion. The patience of the Irish people was becoming exhausted, and although the Irish party desired to give opportunity for a declaration of the government's intention regarding Irish self-government, he thought the chief secretary for Ireland, Mr. Bryce, ought to grapple with the matter vigorously.

Mr. Bryce, after some debate, said the government had done its best to cope with the grave obstacles before it and had won a certain measure of success. If the remedy is compulsion, the chief secretary said the government might have to come to that.

Mr. Redmond said it was obvious that the government must resort to some system of compulsion. The patience of the Irish people was becoming exhausted, and although the Irish party desired to give opportunity for a declaration of the government's intention regarding Irish self-government, he thought the chief secretary for Ireland, Mr. Bryce, ought to grapple with the matter vigorously.

Mr. Bryce, after some debate, said the government had done its best to cope with the grave obstacles before it and had won a certain measure of success. If the remedy is compulsion, the chief secretary said the government might have to come to that.

Mr. Redmond said it was obvious that the government must resort to some system of compulsion. The patience of the Irish people was becoming exhausted, and although the Irish party desired to give opportunity for a declaration of the government's intention regarding Irish self-government, he thought the chief secretary for Ireland, Mr. Bryce, ought to grapple with the matter vigorously.

LIBERALS BEATEN IN LORDS MAJORITY TWO HUNDRED ON EDUCATION BILL

Lord Heneage Offers Amendment Making Religious Instruction in Schools Compulsory and This Carried by 256-56—One Tory With Minority.

London, Oct. 29.—The first vote in a committee of the house of lords on the education bill was taken to-night and resulted in the defeat of the government by a majority of 200.

The vote came on an amendment to the first clause in the bill. The amendment, which was offered by Lord Heneage, Liberal, makes religious instruction compulsory during a part of the daily school hours in all public elementary schools.

Earl Crew, speaking for the government, refused to accept the amendment, but after a most businesslike debate, the amendment was carried, 256 to 56. The majority included the entire opposition in the house of lords with the exception of Lord Amthill, who voted with the minority.

Among the majority were the Archbishop of Canterbury, 20 bishops and the Duke of Devonshire.

Among the minority were all the peers who are members of the government and Lord Rosebery, the Duke of Manchester, the Earl of Durham, Earl Russell, the Marquis of Northampton, Lord Brassey, Lord Grimthorpe, Lord Wearable, Lord Haversham and Lord Ray.

FORMER ORILLIAN SUICIDES.

Charles R. Gray, Writer for Horse Journals, Drinks Laudanum.

Buffalo, Oct. 29.—(Special.)—Charles R. Gray, 48 years old, a writer for journals devoted to horses, committed suicide at the Southern Hotel here this morning.

Until a few years ago he had lived in Orillia, Ont. No reason is known for his rash act, and his widow, who, with four children, survives him, said she could not explain why her husband had ended his life.

Last Wednesday Gray took apartments at the Southern. This morning early a maid heard groans issuing from his room. She called a porter, who crawled through the transom and found Gray in a dying condition. A bottle which had contained laudanum stood on his bureau. Gray died within a few minutes.

SNOW OR SLEET.

Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—Strong northerly and northerly winds; colder, with light falls of snow or sleet.

THE BAROMETER.

Time	Ther.	Bar.	Wind.
5 a.m.	36	30.02	S W
8 a.m.	42	30.02	S W
11 a.m.	42	30.02	S W
2 p.m.	41	30.02	S W
4 p.m.	39	30.02	S W
8 p.m.	34	29.67	Calim.
10 p.m.	34	29.67	Calim.
Mean of day, 38; difference from average, 4 below; highest, 43; lowest, 34; snow S.

WHERE TO LUNCH.

Crown Hotel 75 Bay St. Excellent Cafe. J. Walker, Proprietor.

STEAMSHIP ARRIVALS.

Oct. 29	At	From
Creston	New York	Naples
Westernland	Philadelphia	Liverpool
Caledonia	Glasgow	New York
Sticilia	Glasgow	Montreal
Ervin	Liverpool	New York
Friedrich G. Bremen	New York	Glasgow
Gallia	Gibraltar	New York
Calabria	Gibraltar	New York
Sella	Plymouth	New York
Oceanic	Cape Race	Liverpool
Sticilia	Nantuxet	Glasgow
Sticilia	Glasgow	Montreal
Athena	Father Point	Glasgow
Viceland	Dover	New York

MOVING VANS AND STORAGE.

Forster Storage & Carriage Company, 648 Yonge St. Phone North 923.

A Recipe for Sanity.

Are you worried in a fight? Laugh it off.
Are you cheated of your right? Laugh it off.
Don't make traps or trifles. Don't shoot butterflies with rifles—Laugh it off.
Does your work get into kinks? Laugh it off.
Are you near all sorts of brinks? Laugh it off.
If it's anything you're after, There's no recipe like laughter—Laugh it off.
—Henry Rutherford Elliot in The Century.

Hard Luck Stories Or Tears

Never Yet Produced Satisfactory Results, But

Judicious, Persistent Advertising in THE DAILY WORLD WILL, Because

All Live, Up-to-Date People Read The World.

SON Co., Limited
J. WOOD, MANAGER.

ts for Men 95 to emphasize r clothing

s store.
to prove triumph for store side ment. Men as never an eco-ce to buy creats this wives are row morn-you a little for seeing fall purported English weed Suits, in le-breasted sack grey, black and blue, in a good and dresy patter and check plaid and check and durable and trimmed

and, sizes 35-44, 2.00, to 5.95

Weight Winter
English chevise, reasted Chester-
with deep centre
and collar, fine linings and perfect
fitting.
10.00

ported English
Raincoats, dark blue, black and grey, in the popular and style, good and hair-ings, 12.00

Shirts

ait until you in the chest buy your or winter.
now and buy where good least.

vy Flannelette
olar and pocket,
ge for big men,
each $1.50, 50

Ribbed Unders," guaranteed
d, unshrinkable,
1.25

h Flannel Shirts,
is, neat patterns,
izes 17 to 2.00

by Now have set in—

at is in order.
our $2.00
American
an English etter value at can't get and confident no-can.

Kay's vertical filing cabinet at $24.00 a wonderful value. 36 and 38 King Street West.

The morning World is delivered to any address in the city or suburbs before 7 a.m. for 25 cents a month. Phone Main 212 for complaints of unsatisfactory delivery.

Harris, Customs Broker, 6 Melindas.

If the Dalys were not the best, our business would not grow larger every year.

Smoke No. 7, very cool. Try it and you will have no other. Alvie Bolland.