'Will ask themselves, "Why, if 'Semi-ready' is as good as any other clothing, they should be obliged to wait a week or ten days for delivery?

"They should pay 25 to 50 per cent. more?

"They should guess at the effect of what they buy?

"Instead of seeing it before they buy;

"Instead of getting it the day they buy."

Answered truly, you logically must buy "Semi-ready,"

Because there is no other clothing just like it in everything.

$20, $18, $15, $12 per suit or overcoat.

"Money back when you say so."

Hutchinson's total is one better than the record for these links, made by Vardon yesterday. Of course some of the holes were not played out by Hutchinson, but the stroke for the holes where he picked up were approximated.

Crescent Club's Next Boxing Show.

Tim Callahan writes the Crescent Club manager from Philadelphia, that he has kept up light work since his last match in anticipation of the promised 20-round battle with Dave Sullivan, and he is pleased that the match has been arranged.

"The game in Toronto is the only correct style of fighting," he writes. "I believe I can beat Tony McGovern again at your club, and feel that Sullivan will be easy enough. I was so well treated on my last visit to Toronto, that you can always count on me for any of the reathers who care for a bout over there. I will post $100 for appearance and weight, and you can have no fear of me being at the 124 lbs. this time. I will leave here for Toronto on Sept. 26 with my trainers."

Spike Sullivan will look after Dave's interest here. They must also be in Toronto according to conditions by Sept. 26. Spike offers to box anyone at weight a 4-round preliminary.

Jack Roach says he would meet Wildey, who defeated Tom King, the Englishman, at the last show.

Rugby Gossip.

The rain did not stop the long-haired men from practising yesterday, and both the Argonauts and Varsity had big turnouts.

There was a rumor afloat that on account of the bicycle meet here on Sept. 29 the Argonauts were trying to transfer their game for that date to Hamilton. This is contradicted, and the Tigers and Lambs will meet on Varsity grounds.

The adjourned meeting of the Toronto Rugby League will be held to-night at Thomas' Hotel, West King-street.

Langton was out yesterday with the cars-men for the first time this season. He is one of the best men of the Argonauts. As he comes in from Oakville to practise, according to the new resident rule, Langton must get a permit from the Union to play with the Argos, application for which will be made at once.

Lexie Isbister, the Varsity scrimmage of last season, will be absent from the team this year, as he is dangerously ill at Sault Ste. Marie with typhoid fever. Isbister will be greatly missed by the team, and his place will be hard to fill.

Henry, of last year's Ridley team, was out with Varsity yesterday afternoon.

John Malloch will again play with Varsity this season. He will be out this afternoon for the first time.

There is an arrangement on foot between Varsity and the Argonauts to contest games for the city championship, to be played on Thanksgiving Day, Oct. 18, and on Nov. 10.

The Hamilton Tigers are not saying much, but are sawing wood. It looks as if they thought they had an easy thing on Sept. 29, but that is, judging from the way some Hamilton men criticized the Argonauts' practice yesterday.

Charlie Goldman is the making of a good wing man, and is practising hard for a place on the scullers' team.

The Torontos have had two good practices this week, and each day they show improvement in their work.

The Excelsior-Shamrock players are a husky lot of juniors, and should make a good showing this season.

The two candidates for the half on Varsity's team that are almost sure to reach here a 220-pound contest, before 1500 people Wednesday night, George Siler was reference, and Connors was counted out.

Jacob Schaefer has challenged George Sleeson to play two games of billiards for the championship of the world, and has posted a forfeit in Chicago of $250.

Chicago is billed to witness a great automobile race next week, when W. K. Vanderbilt's "White Ghost" will meet Alexander Winton's fast gasoline auto for a $50,000 purse.

The novice single scull handicap and single scull race for the Dufferin medal, which were to have been rowed last Saturday in connection with the fall at Bone of the Argonaut Rowing Club, but which had to be postponed on account of rough water, will be rowed this afternoon at 5 p.m.

Representatives of the various bicycle clubs of the city will meet at Queen City Bicycle Club this evening (Friday) to arrange the handicap for the Q.C.B.C. 15-mile open road race, which takes place on the Kingston Road Saturday, Sept. 22, at 3.30. There will be a prize for nearly every starter. Entries close this evening at 6 o'clock.

After a bumping race at Sheepshead Bay Jockey Bullman in the dressing room openly threatened to put Jockey Nash Turner over the fence when they met in some subsequent race. The threat was reported to the stewards. Bullman did not deny it, and was fined $200 and suspended for the rest of the meeting.

The final game for the junior championship of the city Lacrosse League will be played on Saturday on the Varsity grounds. F. C. Waghorn will referee the game.

Couldn't Play, Suspended Team.

Sporting Editor World: The Tecumseh Lacrosse Club are doing a lot of talking about a third game with the Torontos for the city championship, but how can they expect the Torontos to give them a game when they have been suspended by the association to which they belong? The Torontos have had enough trouble without playing with a team under the ban. Another good reason for there being no game is that the Torontos are trying to arrange a match with the Shamrocks to decide second place in the big league, and by the time that is played lacrosse season will be over. Rosedale.

THE BIG NEWMARKET FAIR

North York Has Reason to Be Proud of the Growth of its Annual Fall Exhibition.

LARGE INCREASE IN GATE MONEY.

List of Winners in the Horse Ring—The Speeding Contests—Many City Visitors.

Newmarket, Sept. 20.—North York's annual fall fair has come and gone again for the 42nd occasion, and the 1900 show will stand foremost in the rank of the long list. The grounds and buildings have been enlarged since last year, and the change is a strong compliment to the management. The removal of the Main Building to its present position has left the speeding track in full view its entire length, and a new grand stand makes a welcome addition to the other buildings. The fair is now one of three days, but the first day is practically one of preparation. Wednesday's gate was a record one, and the management report an excess of receipts over last year for the same day of $250. The band concert on Wednesday night at the rink proved a great drawer, and $380 came into the treasury, about $100 in advance of last year's takings.

Visitors From the City.

Yesterday saw visitors from all sections of the adjacent country, while the large crowd was swelled by a heavy contingent from the city. The various exhibits were all in shape, and the judging passed without a hitch. The Main Building contained splendid examples of the agricultural facilities of North York, and the home products bore testimony of the capable wives of this portion of the county. Local tradesmen brought out their choicest wares, and by good arrangement lent much to the general effect of the building.

The stock exhibit was slightly larger than that of last year, and of a higher order, admiration from the thousands of onlookers. The Poultry building was filled, and close competition prevailed in all classes.

The speeding in the ring was not up to the standard, and the interest was consequently lackwarm.

Night Up-to-Date.

The management are alive to side issues of an agricultural fair, and the Wild West Cole combination was made up almost exclusively of home talent, but the portrayal of Texas incidents was a realistic, and ing in full force. Acrobatic and vaudeville performances fronting the grand stand also accelerated the general interest in the show.

The judging of horses was keenly watched, and the award of the ring was in nearly all cases met with expressions of approval. The awards in this section were:
